

ELBERT COX

1895 - 1969

American Mathematician

Elbert Frank Cox was the first African-American ever to receive a PhD in Mathematics. The Elbert F. Cox Scholarship Fund, named in his honour, is now used to help black students pursue studies.