

Technology in Solution

Discover the challenges educators face and the impact of technology when teaching Science, Technology, Engineering and Math subjects in Higher Education.

58%

are concerned about student cheating when using digital or online resources*

Educators spend up to 15 hours in their working week, preparing class resources*

65%

think it's important to track their students' progress via an online gradebook*

91%

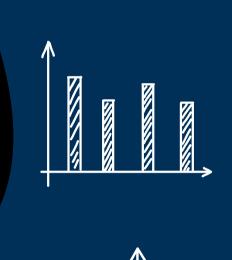

of educators use digital resources in their teaching*

81%

of educators find it challenging to cater for varying student abilities in the class*

How can technology support your teaching?

MyLab & Mastering
Our flexible digital teaching and learning platform can help

Personalise each student's journey

Deliver
world-class content, by top thought
leaders

Encourage
learning
through active,
engaging and
immersive
experiences

Save time
while preparing for class resources
and marking
homework,
quizzes and

tests

Track student performance and identify struggling students

Deter students from cheating

Explore our digital solutions for STEM