

CONTENT COVERAGE GUIDE

Racial and Ethnic Groups

16th Edition • ©2027

A reviewer-facing overview of race, ethnicity, prejudice, discrimination, immigration, identity, and patterns of dominance

ISBN	9780135934371
PUBLISHER	Pearson
REVIEW CONTEXT	State of Utah Board of Education Adoption Review

Prepared as an alternative to a traditional standards correlation where no directly applicable state standards have been identified for the course.

REVIEW CONTEXT

Purpose and Use

This guide provides reviewers with an organized overview of the content covered in Racial and Ethnic Groups, 16th Edition. Because this course does not have a directly applicable set of Utah state standards for correlation, the guide is provided to support evaluation of the program's scope, sequence, and breadth of coverage.

PROGRAM STRUCTURE

Coverage at a Glance

The program is organized into four parts that establish analytical perspectives, examine sources of ethnic and religious conflict, survey major groups in the United States, and compare broader patterns of dominance and exclusion.

PROGRAM PART	TOPICS	COVERAGE OVERVIEW
Perspectives on Racial and Ethnic Groups	3	Race and ethnicity, prejudice and racism, and discrimination
Ethnic and Religious Sources of Conflict	2	Immigration, ethnicity, whiteness, and religion
Major U.S. Racial and Ethnic Groups	9	Native American, African American, Latino, Muslim and Arab American, Asian Pacific American, and Jewish American experiences
Other Patterns of Dominance	3	Gender, international comparison, exclusion, and strategies for overcoming it

Total core content topics: 17

GUIDE ORGANIZATION

How to Read the Detailed Coverage

The detailed coverage retains the program's four-part organization and sequentially lists the topics within each part, supporting review of concepts, group experiences, comparative analysis, and responses to exclusion.

DETAILED CONTENT COVERAGE

Parts 1–2: Perspectives, Immigration, and Identity

The opening parts establish key concepts related to race, ethnicity, prejudice, racism, and discrimination before examining immigration, whiteness, ethnicity, and religion.

Part 1. Perspectives on Racial and Ethnic Groups 3 topics
SEQ.	CONTENT TOPIC
1	Exploring Race and Ethnicity
2	Prejudice and Racism
3	Discrimination

Part 2. Ethnic and Religious Sources of Conflict 2 topics
SEQ.	CONTENT TOPIC
4	Immigration
5	Ethnicity, Whiteness, and Religion

Part 3: Major Racial and Ethnic Groups in the United States

This section examines the histories, identities, diversity, and contemporary experiences of major racial, ethnic, and religious groups in the United States.

Part 3. Major Racial and Ethnic Minority Groups in the United States 9 topics
SEQ.	CONTENT TOPIC
6	Native Americans: The First Americans
7	African Americans
8	African Americans Today
9	Latinos: Growth and Diversity
10	Mexican Americans and Puerto Ricans
11	Muslim and Arab Americans: Diverse Cultures
12	Asian Pacific Americans: An Array of Nationalities
13	Chinese Americans and Japanese Americans
14	Jewish Americans: The Quest to Maintain Identity

DETAILED CONTENT COVERAGE

Part 4: Other Patterns of Dominance

The concluding part extends the analysis to gender, international comparison, exclusion, and approaches to social change.

Part 4. Other Patterns of Dominance

3 topics

SEQ.	CONTENT TOPIC
15	Women: The Oppressed Majority
16	Beyond the United States: The Comparative Perspective
17	Overcoming Exclusion

REVIEWER SUMMARY

Breadth of Coverage

The program covers 17 topics addressing race and ethnicity, immigration, religion, major group experiences in the United States, gender, international comparison, dominance, exclusion, and social change.