

[Music]

dual enrollment is key to giving students a head start on College Pearson dual enrollment online courses makes Advanced learning accessible and flexible for schools and students alike Pearson dual enrollment online courses offers college level courses aligned with higher education standards flexible learning options asynchronous with accredited virtual instructors highquality video instruction and Interactive activities autog graded assessments to track progress real-time assistance using AI study tutors to answer students questions and Student Success coaches to help keep students on track with courses designed to earn transferable credits Pearson dual enrollment online courses prepare students for college success while saving schools and families time and money accessible flexible and effective Pearson dual enrollment online courses Bridges the gap between high school and college colge for every learner expand access to dual enrollment today contact your Pearson representative to learn more about Pearson dual enrollment online courses