Speaking task one

Listen to Student B and answer questions about what the people below are going to do. (Pictures in blue are tentative plans, or what they may do.) If you have blanks, ask Student B about what they are going to do and fill in the blanks.

Example

Student B What's Wayne going to do in the morning?
Student A He's going to take a shower and have breakfast. Then maybe he'll paint.

Memo

- Write only notes in the blanks.
- If the picture is in blue, answer, "He thinks he'll ... " or "Maybe he'll ... "

 Wayne morning:  afternoon: _____ evening: 	 Ellen morning: _____ afternoon:  evening: _____

Speaking task two Do this exercise in a group of three or more students.

Memo

- Do not write anything on the pictures.
- Help each other repeat the sentences.

The first student must choose a picture and say what he or she is going to do or may do this weekend. The next student must repeat the sentence and make one more sentence using a different picture. Each student must repeat every sentence and make one more sentence.

Continue around the circle and use as many pictures as possible, repeating all the sentences (with names) for about fifteen minutes (until your teacher says "stop").

The group of students that uses the most pictures, and correctly repeats the most sentences, wins!

Example

 Lenny I'm going to get a haircut.

 Mary Lenny's going to get a haircut. Maybe I'll go the beach.

 Jean Lenny's going to get a haircut. Maybe Mary will go to the beach. I think I'll wash my car.
