

Fifty-Fifty Book 1: Unit 12 Worksheet (A)

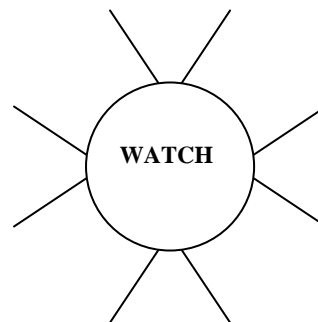

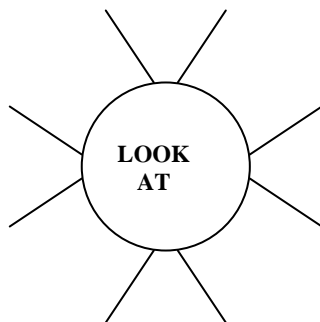

“LOOK AT” OR “WATCH”?

Read the two sentences below.

- I’m going to go to Paris to look at the art exhibition next week.
- I’m going to watch a movie tonight.

When we talk about things we see, we sometimes use look at and sometimes use watch. Write the phrases in the box below on the correct spider. Then add three more phrases to each spider.

a magazine while I wait	Picasso’s art	the Giants’ game	her pictures
the test	their concert	the monument ✓	a ballet
the boys playing soccer	our bags while I go to the restroom

Write sentences about your future plans using look at or watch.

Example: Tomorrow I’m going to go to the museum to look at the new Picasso.

1. Next winter _____
2. Tonight _____
3. Tomorrow night _____
4. _____
5. _____
