1 SIMON'S STORY

Simon is a student in Canada. Last year he visited Asia. Read about Simon's trip. Guess the missing words.

Hi, I'm Simon. Last year, I visited Asia for the first time. I went to Taiwan, Thailand, and Korea. In each country, there were many interesting and exciting places. I'm studying architecture, so this report is about ① places that I found fascinating on my vacation.

First, I want to ② _____ the Taipei 101 building in Taipei, Taiwan. The building is much ③ _____ than the Eiffel Tower in Paris and it is more modern, of course! It just feels so exciting to go in it. There are so many shops, ④ _____, and entertainment places in just one building.

The ⑤ _____ building is the Elephant Tower in Bangkok, Thailand. This building has the most original design. It is huge and really ⑥ _____ an elephant. Two towers look like the elephant's legs, and the other is the trunk. There is a big, round ⑦ _____ that is the eye.

The final place I want to introduce is the Cheonggyecheon (which means "clean canyon river") in Seoul. This area brings ⑧ _____ to the center of Seoul, improving the quality of life. There is a river that runs through the area. Before the park was built, this area was just concrete, and the ⑨ _____ was underground. Now it's so much more ⑩ _____ than before.

Complete the sentences. Use these words. There are 2 extra.

second	nature	window	river	attractive	tall
introduce	places	taller	looks like	restaurants	third

3-10 Listen and check your answers.

2 THINK ABOUT THE STORY

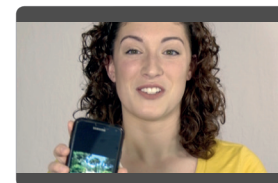

Now answer these questions about the story.

- Which countries and what buildings or places did Simon visit? _____
- Why is he interested in these places? _____
- Think of a place in your area. Where is it? _____
Would Simon find it interesting? Why? _____
- What are three places in the world that you would like to visit? Why? _____

3 YOUR STORY

What is an interesting trip you have taken? Think about it. Then write about it. Use Simon's story as a model. Now work in groups of 3 or 4. Present your story.
