Present simple and present continuous

We use the present continuous to talk about things that take place at the time of speaking and are not permanent.	We're visiting the site. He's walking through the gate.
We use adverbs of frequency (e.g. always, usually, often, sometimes, never) with the present simple to describe how often somebody does something or how often something happens.	We usually have about 100 people on site. Sometimes we work in a consortium.
