

Sounds Good

Podcast 14

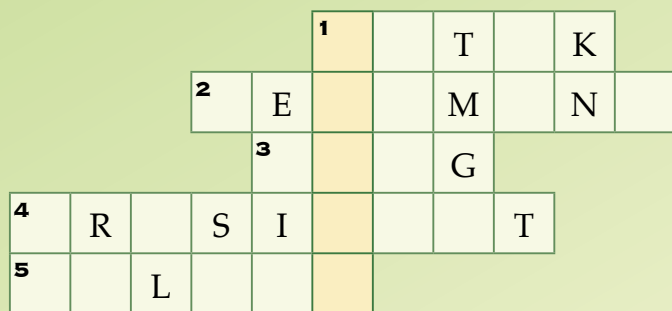

Reky talks to Todd about a typical Indonesian wedding. Weddings in Indonesia are different depending on where they take place. Which part of Indonesia is Reky from? What do the bride and groom dress up as? According to Reky, how has gift giving changed at weddings in Indonesia?

Listen again. Fill in the boxes with words from the Podcast. If you fill in the correct answers you can find out the secret word. Some letters are there to help you.

- 1 ____ is traditionally worn by men at weddings in Indonesia.
- 2 The marriage ____ is usually held on a Sunday in Jakarta.
- 3 In Jakarta, the groom dresses up like a ____.
- 4 Indonesia is led by a ____, but Jakarta has a king.
- 5 For a wedding celebration, an Indonesian home is decorated like a ____.

The secret word is: _____

What is a good gift to give at a wedding? What would you like to receive as a gift if you got married? Why?

In India, brides usually wear red and their hands and feet are covered with beautiful henna patterns for good luck.

Fun Fact

The word "batik" comes from the Javanese words "amba," meaning "to write," and "titik," meaning "dot". Javanese is one of the 737 languages of Indonesia!

