

Sounds Good

Podcast 27

Anita is from Prague in the Czech Republic. Todd visited Prague and noticed that there was a lot of graffiti there. Anita and Todd discuss how they feel about it. What language is most of the graffiti written in? Why does Todd think some of the graffiti he saw in Prague was a little embarrassing? What does Anita think about some of the designs?

Graffiti is usually done with spray-paint.

Listen again. Which words do you hear? Circle the words that Anita says. They are not in order.

- |                    |                 |                   |                   |
|--------------------|-----------------|-------------------|-------------------|
| A whitewash | D angry  | G ugly     | J messages |
| B highways  | E name   | H pleasant | K street   |
| C beautiful | F school | I illegal  | L park     |

What do you think?

Is graffiti art? Why or why not?

Fun Fact

Even though John Lennon never visited the city, this wall in Prague has been dedicated to him since the 1980s. It is covered with graffiti about him and words from his songs.

Prague Castle is the city's most popular tourist attraction.