

Sounds Good

Podcast 18

Fred tells Katia about fun winter sports in Canada. Katia is from Mexico where it is usually hot, so she is a little worried about being too cold. What does Fred suggest that she do to keep warm? What does Katia think about his suggestion?

Banff National Park (above) is located in the Canadian Rockies. It is a popular place to do winter sports.

Listen again and unjumble the sentences from the Podcast.

1 going you're Canada to ?

2 a there's cold, snow Canada and of it's lot in .

3 sports done I've no, winter . never

4 I'm skiing . think I like to going

5 hot drink ! cocoa maybe can after hot I

Have you ever tried something new that was really hard? In the end, did you succeed or give up? Why?

Fun Fact

The coldest temperature ever recorded on Earth was in Vostok, Antarctica in July, 1983. The temperature was -128.6°F (-89.2°C)!

Skiing was not always a sport. It started as a useful form of transportation for long distances in the snow. In Scandinavia, skis over 4,000 years old have been discovered!

