

Sounds Good

Podcast 13

Eoin talks to Todd about what he likes about being in a rock band. He mentions the instruments he plays, how he got started in music and how his band got together. How many band members are there in Eoin's band and what instruments do each of them play? What are the two things that Eoin really loves about being in a band?

Listen again. Number the sentences about Eoin's life in the order that they happened.

- _____ • formed a rock band
- _____ • did a tour of Britain
- _____ • learned the guitar at the age of 13
- _____ • moved to Japan to teach English
- _____ • met Dai and Manabu.
- _____ • Eoin was born in England
- _____ • started playing the violin at 5 or 6 years old

What do you think?

What would be good about playing in a rock band? What would be bad? Why?

Fun Fact

The largest rock concert ever held was on New Year's Eve, 1994 in Rio, Brazil. 3.5 million people watched Rod Stewart perform at Copacabana Beach!

Violins are played by pulling a bow across the strings. The hair on the bow usually comes from a horse.