

Sounds Good

Podcast 17

Peter tells Todd about his many hobbies. Two of his hobbies are very close to his heart. This means that they are very important to him. Why does he love them so much? How is his other hobby different?

Listen again. Fill in the correct answers to the crossword puzzle below.

Ansel Adams (1902–1984) was an American photographer famous for his black and white photographs of nature and American wilderness.

ACROSS

- 3 Peter uses a camera for this hobby.
- 6 Todd asks what Peter does in his ____.
- 7 Peter makes his own ____.

DOWN

- 1 Peter speaks three ____.
- 2 Peter mostly takes pictures of the ____.
- 4 Peter has three of these.
- 5 Peter is ____ Japanese now.

Fun Fact

Midsommar (Midsummer) is celebrated on June 23rd in Sweden. It is the longest day of the year. The sun doesn't set in many parts of the country, so you may be able to see the sun at midnight.

What do you think?

What is something that is close to your heart? It could be a person, a place, a hobby, or an object. Why is it special?