

Sounds Good

Podcast 8

Good and Gift are twin sisters from Thailand. They talk to Todd about how they are the same and how they are different. What two activities do they both like doing? How did they get their names? Do their voices sound the same?

The chances of having twins are about 3 in 100.

Listen again. Circle the correct options for each twin.

Fun Fact

Identical twins have exactly the same DNA (genetic makeup) but they have different fingerprints!

What do you think?

Would you like to be a twin? Why or why not?

Two babies born at the same time are called twins, like Good and Gift. Three babies born at the same time are called triplets.
