

Sounds Good

Podcast 19

Jeff, Swinky, Mariel and Xenia talk about their favorite restaurants. They all like different places and different types of foods. Does Jeff eat at his favorite restaurant often? Why does Mariel like going to her favorite restaurant in the evening? Do most of the speakers like cheap or expensive restaurants?

Listen again. Fill in the correct information to match each person with their country, restaurant and the keyword that they use.

COUNTRY

- A Kenya
- B Finland
- C Canada
- D Taiwan

RESTAURANT

- E Hot Food Shop
- F La Scala
- G Zen Sushi
- H Thai King

KEYWORD

- I popular
- J spicy
- K class break
- L tomatoes

In Thailand, people can buy and sell food and other items from boats at floating markets. Jeff's favorite meal, pad thai, is often sold from a boat at one of these markets.

	Country	Restaurant	Keyword
1	Jeff	_____	_____
2	Swinky	_____	_____
3	Mariel	_____	_____
4	Xenia	_____	_____

The highest price ever paid for a tuna fish (sushi grade) was $173,600 in Tokyo in January 2001. The blue fin tuna was 444 pounds!

What is your favorite restaurant and what type of food does it serve? Why do you like the restaurant?

Fun Fact

The word pasta means "paste" (a mixture of water and flour) in Italian. There are over 600 kinds of pasta shapes made around the world!

