

Teacher's notes

Try this quiz with your class and test their values. The questions focus on the following values: sincerity, honesty, positivity, resilience, and friendship.

If they answer mostly As, then they already demonstrating most of the values in their lives. If they answer mostly Bs, talk to them about why it is important to be honest, positive, strong, and kind.

The quiz will start a meaningful conversation about their own values and how they react to common situations in life.

Learning objective

- ★ GSE Reading: Can extract factual details from a simple text.

Answers

- ★ A lot of As?

You prefer to be honest and you carry on when life is difficult. You are a good friend and you understand how important it is to talk to friends and family when you are feeling sad.

- ★ A lot of Bs?

You sometimes find it hard to be honest and you don't like to talk about your problems. Try being more open and honest and sharing your problems with a friend or family.

Values quiz

Answer the questions and learn more about you.

1. You arrive at school 10 minutes late. Do you...

- a. explain why you are late?
- b. lie to avoid more questions?

2. You break your friend's pencil. Do you...

- a. buy them a new pencil?
- b. tell them that you lost it?

3. You find your homework difficult. Do you...

- a. ask for help and keep trying?
- b. decide not to do it?

4. Your friend is crying but you are busy. Do you...

- a. stop and help your friend?
- b. tell your friend that you are busy and can't help now?

5. You are feeling sad. Do you...

- a. talk to a friend or family about it?
- b. stay quiet?