 - 10.1.1. the remuneration policy for the executive directors (which shall be subject to approval by shareholders from time to time); and
 - 10.1.2. the remuneration policy or policies for the presidents of the principal geographic markets and lines of business and other members of the Pearson Executive who report directly to the CEO ("Executive Management").
- 10.2. The remuneration policies under clause 10.1 shall each include the framework or broad policy for base salary, annual and long-term incentives, pension arrangements, any other benefits, and termination of employment. The objective of such policies shall be to promote the long-term success of the Company, with performance-related elements being transparent, stretching and rigorously applied. The remuneration policies should have regard to views of shareholders and other stakeholders, risk and alignment to the Company's long-term strategic goals.
- 10.3. The Committee shall regularly review the implementation and operation of the remuneration policy for Executive Management. The individual remuneration and benefit packages of the Executive Management shall be a matter for the Board or the CEO.

- 10.4. The Committee shall determine and approve the individual remuneration and benefits packages of the executive directors within the terms of the remuneration policy for executive directors.
- 10.5. Any remuneration and benefits arrangements, including on appointment or termination, for Executive Management which are outside the relevant policy must be approved by the Committee in advance.
- 10.6. No executive director or member of Executive Management shall be involved in any decisions as to his or her own remuneration.
- 10.7. In determining the remuneration policies for executive directors and Executive Management and the individual remuneration and benefits packages for the executive directors, the Committee shall take into account all factors which it deems necessary and shall:

 - 10.7.2. have regard to the advice of the CEO;
 - 10.7.3. give due regard to any relevant legal requirements, the provisions and recommendations in the Code and the UK Listing Authority's Listing Rules (the "Listing Rules") and associated guidance;
 - 10.7.4. review and have regard to pay and employment conditions across the Company, especially when determining annual salary increases;
 - 10.7.5. review the remuneration and benefits packages of comparable companies to ensure that the Company's executive directors and Executive Management are fairly and competitively remunerated, whilst avoiding paying more than is necessary;
- 10.8. The Committee shall approve the design of, and determine targets for, any performance-related pay plans operated by the Group for the Senior Leadership Group and approve the total annual payments to be made under such plans;
- 10.9. The Committee shall review the design of all share incentive plans operated by the Group for the Senior Leadership Group, including guidelines for the operation of such plans as a whole and, where relevant, the determination of performance measures and targets, and, also where relevant, recommend such plans for approval by the Board and/or shareholders. For any such plans, the Committee shall determine each year whether awards will be made and, if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to executive directors and members of Executive Management and the performance targets to be used;
- 10.10. In designing performance-related remuneration plans, the Committee shall ensure that provisions are included that will enable the Company to recover sums paid or withhold the payment of any sum, and specify the circumstances in which it would be appropriate to do so. In addition, the Committee shall be responsible for determining whether to apply such provisions in any individual case relating to any performance-related remuneration for executive directors and members of the Executive Management;
- 10.11. The Committee shall advise and decide on general and specific arrangements in connection with the appointment and termination of employment of executive directors. The Committee shall carefully consider what compensation commitments (including pension contributions and all other elements) the directors' terms of appointment would entail in the event of early termination. The aim should be to ensure that arrangements are fair to the individual and the Company, and to avoid rewarding poor performance;

- 10.12. The Committee shall together with the chairman of the Board and the other independent directors (as directed by the Board), review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to CEO remuneration, evaluate the CEO's performance in light of those goals and objectives, and determine and approve the CEO's remuneration based on this evaluation;
- 10.13. The Committee shall have delegated responsibility for determining the remuneration and benefits package of the chairman of the Board and share its proposals with the Board. The remuneration of non-executive directors shall be a matter for the chairman of the Board and the executive members of the Board within the limits set in the Articles of Association;
- 10.14. The Committee shall be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the Committee and shall be responsible for monitoring the cost of such advice;
- 10.15. The Committee shall agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from the executive directors.

Regulations, the Companies Act, the Listing Rules and all other relevant laws and regulations;

11.3.5. consider and make recommendations to the Board concerning disclosure of details of remuneration packages and structures in addition to those required by law or by the UK Listing Authority or the London Stock Exchange.
