

Onscreen Assessment

Exams that work the way students do

Over 8,500

students sat onscreen exams in 2023

5 fold increase in students taking onscreen exams
in 2024

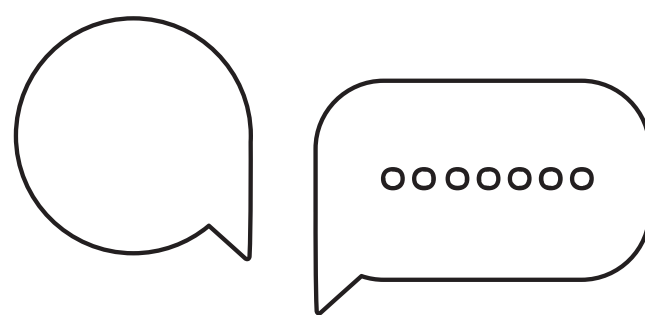

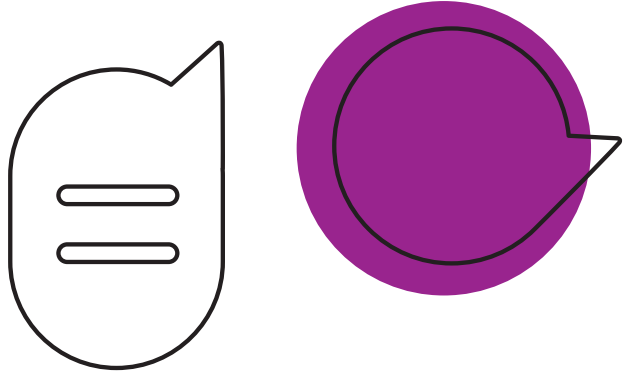

7 subjects
for 2024 and 11 by 2025 and 14 by 2026

International GCSE English Language A International GCSE English Literature International GCSE Business
International GCSE Economics
International GCSE History
International A Level English Language
International A Level English Literature

Students and teachers love it

90% of students who sat their exams onscreen in 2022 said they wanted their school to offer more onscreen exams in the future

100% of teachers who registered students for onscreen exams in 2022 registered students for 2023 exam
series too

Positive results

“It’s been a fantastic experience for us as a school and also for our students who were absolutely delighted to work in a way that felt most comfortable to them.”

Wayne Ridgway the Head of Senior School at the British School of Bahrain

“I am really reliant on computers in my daily life.”

“I type a lot faster than I write.”

“I can move back and forth between answers really quickly and amend answers.”

Students from Qatar International School