

We all share one home – the Earth

1 Mark your home country on this map of the world in red.

- 2 Add any other places you have called home on the world map in blue.
- 3 Add any places you have visited on holiday on the world map in green.

Now draw a map of where you live.
Label your road and your home.