

Weather at the Poles

It is very noisy at the Poles. The winds are so strong that they can blow you over. The strong winds make the ice creak. All day and all night you can hear the wind blowing and the ice creaking.

It is so cold that your breath freezes.
Your hair freezes too!

