Once upon a time there was a Little Red Hen.
She lived on a farm with a cat and a dog and a goat.
One day the Little Red Hen found some grains of wheat.
She went to ask the other animals on the farm to help her.
'Will you help me to plant the grains of wheat?' she said.
But the cat and the dog and the goat said,

'I will eat you,'
said the fox.

'No, you will not,'
said the rabbit.

Once upon a time there was an old woman, an old man and an old cat, and they were all very happy.

One day the old woman said,
'I will make something to eat.
I will make a gingerbread man.'

'Who is that?' asked the king.
'It is just an ugly little frog,' said
the princess. 'I was playing with my ball today and it fell in the pond.
The frog got it back for me.'

Prince Ivan was not happy.
He had lots and lots of toys but he did not like playing with them.
'What can I do today?' he said.

Prince Ivan ran down the stairs.
He saw the queen.
'I'm going out to play,' he called.
'Put on a hat before you go out,'
said the queen. 'It's a very cold day.'
