TEST

Practice task

1 For each question, choose the correct answer.

The people below want to visit a place near the sea.

There are descriptions of five places near the sea.

Decide which place would be most suitable for the people below.

- 1 Crista is keen on photography and would like to take photographs of wildlife. She loves walking by the sea, and hopes to find cheap accommodation with sea views.

- 2 Francesco is planning to swim in the sea and stay in a hotel on cliffs overlooking the ocean. He's also interested in finding out about how the town developed in the past.

A Freshwater

If you're looking for water sports, this is the perfect place, and it's perfectly safe for all ages. There are other sports available, too, including tennis and badminton. There's live entertainment in the local theatre every night and an excellent museum for anyone interested in history. Our good-quality hotels provide luxury and the opportunity to relax.

B Marineville

The water here is perfect for swimmers, so why not improve your diving skills with our experienced instructors? Our hotels have high standards, but are not expensive, and they're situated on the cliffs with fantastic sea views. There's a fireworks display on the beach once a month, too. For historians, information on the area can be found in the museum.

C Stevton

This is the place to come if you're a keen photographer of landscapes as the views of the mountains behind the town are amazing. Why not stay in a hostel up there for a change? You can walk or cycle and enjoy the fresh air. For a special meal, try one of the mountain restaurants with amazing beef dishes.

D Oldquay

Visitors love the views of birds from the cliffs, and if you're lucky, you can see dolphins, too. Make sure you have your camera so you can take that special picture of them. There are marked paths for walking or cycling. Anyone wanting to save money can stay on the campsite overlooking the sea and enjoy a barbecue. Why not have a swim, too?

How did you do?

- 2 Check your answers.

Strategies and skills

Understanding what someone wants, likes or needs

It's important to identify what each person likes, prefers, needs or doesn't want so you can match them with the right text.

 - 1 Jo loves spending time by lakes and mountains and is fascinated by plants and flowers. She can't afford to stay in a hotel so she is looking for a cheap hostel.
 - 2 Ali is keen on seeing local wildlife, especially wildlife that lives in forests. He only likes exploring on his own, and taking photographs.
 - 3 Clara loves being in the countryside but is afraid of high places. She prefers to stay in good-quality large hotels but hates being in crowds.
 - 4 Leo would like to go camping because he loves being in the fresh air. He dislikes hotels and loves barbecues. He doesn't want to use a car and tries to cycle everywhere.

- 2 Look at the information about Hari. Does Text A mention any of the things he wants? If so, underline them.
- 3 Look at the information about Maria. Does Text A mention any of the things she wants? If so, underline them.
- 4 Does Text A match any person completely?

TIP: If Text A does not give you all the information you need about one person or there is information in Text A that you have not underlined, then that information is not relevant so you can move on. The text you choose must match all the information in the profile of the person.

10 Text A does not match any of the three people. Now read texts B-E and decide which dance class would be most suitable for each person.

A All About Dance

Have you ever wanted to learn modern dance? If so, these are the classes for you! Spend your Wednesday mornings in our school in the town centre and you'll feel healthier and happier for it. Although we don't enter students for any tests or put on any shows, the standard is very high and everyone has a good time.

B Top Dance Studio

We are proud that some well-known dancers started their careers in our studio and they have become role models for our younger students. Some return and give talks about themselves and their careers and even teach some classes. We are only able to offer ballet classes during the day but classes in all other types of dance begin at 6 p.m.

C Point College

Although our teachers have some experience in all dance forms, our most popular classes are ballet. These classes take place during the day and at weekends and cost £25 for two hours. We often organise trips to watch ballet, usually on Saturday evenings, and all students are welcome because we feel this helps them improve their own dancing technique.

D Ann's Dance Academy

Our classes cover a range of dance types, including modern and more traditional. We want our students to reach the highest standards they can and get some qualifications that will give them confidence and also encourage them to improve. Every month we take students to the theatre to watch a show and we talk about the moves with them in our classes.

E Swan Dance School

Of course dance classes are an excellent way to exercise and keep fit but we believe they are more than that. We teach students how to dance, help them understand what they are dancing to and how that makes them feel. Dance should be enjoyed by people doing it and also by those watching it, so we perform shows regularly. Everyone has the chance to take part.

11 Tick the information from texts A-E that is not relevant to any of the three people.

- cost of classes
- music
- morning classes
- location of school
- exams

For each question, choose the correct answer.

The young people below all want to join a club for people who enjoy films.

On the opposite page there are descriptions of eight film clubs.

Decide which club would be most suitable for the people below.

Jack wants a club where members get together regularly to discuss films face-to-face. He enjoys films with songs in them and likes to go on organised trips to watch a film.

Beth prefers serious films and doesn't like comedies or musicals. She wants to find out more about the background to films she watches and to get recommendations for other films.
- 3

Andy prefers independent films to famous blockbusters and wants to attend organised talks by directors and actors online. He enjoys posting his own reviews of films he's seen.

Carrie loves films about animals. She's very interested in the technical side of making films and wants to find out more about this. She wants to take part in an online discussion forum.
- 5

Josh wants to start his own blog about films he's seen. He loves science fiction and wants ideas from other fans for books to read with similar stories to the films.

Film clubs

A Film Fans

Our club meetings on Thursday evenings are social occasions as well as opportunities for serious discussion. The range of films we like is wide, from science fiction to musicals, and we publish the list of those we will watch every six months. Members are free to recommend films we can include in the following months.

B Cinema Group

We meet every Tuesday evening in the café of the local cinema. Members discuss films they've seen in the past online or in the cinema and talk about what they liked or didn't like about them. Once a month there's a trip to see a special film chosen by the group, which is often a musical and is always a fun event.

C Film Club

We arrange online question and answer sessions with directors and actors who introduce us to unusual and fascinating films, such as strange films about life in the future. They really make you think! There's a link on our website for members to write their opinions of films they've seen. On the whole, we prefer films from small companies to big blockbusters.

D Film World

Many of our members are fascinated by nature and will watch anything with wildlife in it. We explore the difficulties of making films like this and how these problems are solved by film-makers. There's a part of our site where users can chat about films they've seen and many members write their opinions on the general website so that we can all share them.

E Screen Fans

We welcome film fans who want to share their ideas and experiences. We meet weekly in the local cinema and after watching a film we write down our thoughts. These appear in the club's monthly newsletter for other members to discuss. We also have a monthly competition to win free cinema tickets.

F Crazy About Films

We're into any film showing life in the future or on other planets. We meet every month to talk about them and because they're often based on novels we talk about those, too, and suggest ones like them to read. It's great when members write up their own opinions of films and some have their own blogs, which we all enjoy reading.

G Watch It

Many members belong to the local wildlife association and there's a particular interest in watching films about the natural world. This includes scientific documentaries about the stars and life on other planets. We run competitions every month and occasional trips to local wildlife parks. Some people even show their own films of animal life or the stars!

H Love Films

We want to have fun but that doesn't mean watching funny films! We prefer dramas and we often meet and read the scripts together. Members research facts behind these, which helps us understand them, and we invite young directors to post online about their work. The site has an excellent recommendations section where members can add their ideas.

- 6 Look at the whole text again. Ex 1 question 4 is asking about the writer's opinion in the whole text, not one particular paragraph. Think about his opinion throughout the article. Is he generally positive about tablets or negative?

TECHNOLOGY AND YOUNG CHILDREN

Inventions tend to become cheaper as they become more widely used, and touch devices like tablets are much less expensive than they used to be. They're everywhere and offer enormous advantages in daily life for work and leisure. But now it seems that the age children are using them has become much younger. I've seen tiny toddlers swiping through apps as if it's the most natural thing in the world, and this may not be a good thing. Some parents stop children under two from using technology and others limit how much they are allowed to use it. This may be because they know a child's brain is growing quickly under the age of three and are afraid that technology could damage it. Although there's no definite proof that technology has any negative effects like this, a young child might find using technology more enjoyable than playing with other children and this could stop them making relationships and learning social skills. So even if children don't like it, it's not a bad thing when people suggest reducing screen time, and technical skills can be learnt when the child is older.

Some people say that far from limiting social development, technology gets children working, talking and problem-solving together. Clearly, if teachers use technology correctly, especially in the classroom, it can only improve a child's ability to learn. Using tablets must be fun for young children and even if they're only playing games with friends, becoming familiar with technology will prepare them to do well later on. Nevertheless, people who think that tablets are unsuitable for young children are still not convinced.

Strategies and skills

Identifying attitude and opinion

TIP: In the text, you won't read words such as 'worried' or 'happy' if they are in the options. You will read other words or phrases that tell you how the writer feels.

Questions ask about the attitude, feelings or opinion of the writer or of a person in the text. You need to think about the words people use to express their feelings and their opinions about something.

- 1 Look at the short blog below. Are statements 1-6 true or false? Underline the words that give you the answer.

- 1 Jose was disappointed by his trip to Australia.
- 2 Jose felt worried about travelling around.
- 3 Jose was annoyed by some other travellers.
- 4 Jose didn't like the traffic in the city.
- 5 Jose liked the beaches he visited.
- 6 Jose was surprised by the variety of wildlife he saw.

MY AUSTRALIAN TRIP

I'd spent such a long time looking forward to my visit to Australia that when I finally got there it wasn't quite as good as I expected.

Obviously, Australia's a very big country and it took a long time to get from one place to another. Although that was boring sometimes it wasn't really a problem and it didn't make me feel anxious at all. One long journey I remember was on a bus and some of the passengers were playing really loud music the whole time. I hate it when people do that, especially when I'm trying to get some sleep! The traffic in the cities was pretty bad, too, which was a shame – it sometimes took ages to get out of the centre.

There were many great things about the trip, though. There were beautiful sandy beaches where I spent a lot of time, and the surfing there was amazing. I got quite good at it! I had several trips out into the countryside and I couldn't believe how many kangaroos there were in the wild – they looked really cute! I took loads of photographs of them.

- 2 Read the sentences. Which word (A, B or C) describes how the writer felt?

- 1 I love travelling and I couldn't wait to get to the airport.
A disappointed B excited C nervous
- 2 I went to the cinema with my friend but I couldn't understand what was going on at all – the story was so complicated.
A annoyed B worried C confused
- 3 I expected the course to be difficult and on the first day I wasn't sure I could do it.
A nervous B surprised C excited
- 4 The lecture seemed to go on for ages – I just wanted it to end.
A sad B bored C keen
- 5 I was so pleased to get home after the long journey – I was so tired.
A bored B annoyed C relieved
- 6 The art gallery had so many beautiful pictures – I've never seen such a wonderful collection.
A confused B impressed C frightened

- 3 Read the paragraphs and answer the questions about the writer's opinion.

I was convinced about doing the course because I love music and the chance to learn a new musical instrument was too good to miss. It was just a shame that the lessons took place on Saturday mornings so I couldn't go to hockey training then. I don't regret it, though.

- 1 What is the writer's opinion about the decision he made to do the course?
A It was a good one.
B It was difficult to make.

It's fun to eat in a new restaurant and when one opened in town I was keen to try it. The menu looked good and I decided to go with a group of friends. We booked a table and hoped to have a great evening. It didn't work out that way, though. The service was poor and the food was even worse. I shall do some research before trying anywhere new again!

- 2 What does the writer think about going to a new restaurant?
A It's always a good idea.
B It can be a mistake.

I had an accident at work and hurt my right wrist very badly. I'm right-handed, so suddenly doing even simple things became difficult. Getting dressed, using a pen, doing up buttons – these took ages, but the hardest thing was using a pair of scissors! I had a lot of help from my family and friends but they didn't realise how many problems I had.

- 3 What does the writer think about having the injury?
A It was impossible for other people to understand the difficulties.
B It was necessary to ask for help in that situation.

SPEAKING BOOST

Discuss or answer.

- 1 What rules about the use of technology did you have when you were young?
- 2 What are your favourite apps? What do they do and how often do you use them?

Understanding global meaning

TIP: In the exam, the last question refers to the whole text, not to one particular paragraph. You need to look for information in different parts of the text to find the answer and it will not be stated clearly.

Sometimes a writer doesn't state something clearly and you have to understand what they mean in general.

4 Look at the short paragraphs. They don't give an exact opinion. What would the writer say about each one? Choose A or B.

1 It rained all day so I couldn't do what I had planned. I stayed in the house and watched television. The day seemed to go on forever. I don't want to waste time like that again, even though some people might think it was nice not to feel any pressure.

- A I felt so bored the whole day.
- B It was a relaxing day when I did nothing.

2 The match started well and all the players were trying really hard. At that point it was exciting to watch and I even thought we had a chance of winning. Then the other team scored a goal and from that moment everything went wrong. We were never going to win!

- A I was disappointed about the way my team played.
- B I enjoyed parts of the game.

3 The traffic was so bad on Saturday that it was difficult to find a parking space in the town. When I got to the shopping centre all the shops were really crowded and it was impossible to walk around without bumping into people. I didn't manage to buy anything I wanted and then it took ages to drive home!

- A I wish I hadn't gone shopping.
- B I like shopping in town on a Saturday.

4 The holiday started badly, with the journey to the airport taking twice as long as normal because of the heavy traffic. Everyone was feeling annoyed by the time we actually got onto the plane. Then the flight was more uncomfortable than any other one I can remember and when we arrived at the resort it was raining – they said it had never rained in July before!

- A Going on holiday is usually an enjoyable experience.
- B Long-distance travelling is never much fun.

Reading for detailed comprehension

When you do the task, you should read each part of the text carefully. You then match the exact meaning of what you read with the meaning of one of the options.

5 Read the paragraphs carefully. Only one option (A-C) is true. Choose the correct option. Why are the others not true?

1 Roberto loves his job as a television presenter. When people ask him why, he has an immediate and definite answer – it's never boring! There are disadvantages, of course, as there are with any job – he works very long hours and there's always the pressure of having to look good on television – but he loves all that. He just wishes the salary were higher!

- A Roberto is glad that television presenters work at regular times.
- B Roberto is satisfied that television presenters are paid well.
- C Roberto is certain that a television presenter's job is always interesting.

2 When Agnes was at school, she had lots of ideas about what she could do as a career but few of them seemed realistic. She was good at maths but not much else and her teachers thought she should become an accountant. That didn't seem like a good plan to her because her hobby was playing computer games and designing those seemed like more fun. Her parents weren't keen on that career for her, though.

- A Agnes wanted to do what her teachers said.
- B Agnes did well in different subjects at school.
- C Agnes liked the idea of designing computer games.

Luckily, it wasn't going to rain so he didn't need to think about putting up umbrellas!

- A Max was excited about so many people coming to his party.
- B Max was looking forward to having a party in his garden.
- C Max was relieved about the weather conditions.

4 I had never thought of trying to run a marathon but when one of my friends decided to give it a go, I thought 'Why not? How difficult can it be?' How wrong I was! I did six months' hard training and completely changed my diet so that I would become stronger. It wasn't easy at all! I was sure that I would be nervous on the day of the marathon itself but I knew that I had prepared well. And in the end I enjoyed it, even though I took more than four hours to finish!

- A The writer was happy with the preparation she did for the marathon.
- B The writer expected running the marathon to be difficult.
- C The writer's friend convinced her to run a marathon.

- 5 Hi, Janie! I'm really looking forward to seeing you next week. I've made lots of plans for us and we'll have a great time! Shall I meet you at the station when you arrive? That'll be better than you taking a taxi. Let me know!

- A making Janie an offer
- B giving Janie advice

- 6 Hi, Mo! I hope you had fun on your birthday and I'm sorry that I couldn't make it to the party in the evening. It was impossible for me to change the meeting at work, so I'm sure that you understand. I'll see you on Saturday as planned, anyway, and we can have our own small celebration then.

- A apologising for missing Mo's party
- B changing an arrangement with Mo

For each question, choose the correct answer.

My snowboarding experiences

Young snowboarder Maya Gonzales writes about her experiences.

I've always loved excitement and my parents encouraged me to try to be the best at everything I did. I started gymnastics when I was three and was winning competitions when I was six. By the time I was fourteen, I was finding it too easy. Doing the same routines was becoming boring and I needed a change. My family used to go skiing every year, so I could ski almost as soon as I could walk! So I convinced my parents to let me try snowboarding, which I thought looked harder than skiing. How right I was!

The first step was managing the board – it's not as easy as you might think. I felt I had lost control over my body and every time I fell over it was difficult to stand up again. In fact, I was sure that everyone was laughing at me, which wasn't a good feeling! But I had a good instructor and, once I learnt how to balance, I improved quickly. He said that my previous gymnastics classes helped me with that. Then I discovered there were tricks I could do on my snowboard. I decided I wanted to spend the winter learning to do these properly.

The first competition I entered was a real surprise. I was used to being a winner but this was a completely different experience. The standard was really high, which was a shock, and I was very nervous. Then one of the other competitors told me I had the talent to get to the top, although he didn't tell me how to do it. What he said made me feel more positive and although I only came tenth, it felt more like a small success. He also said he wasn't as good as me, which was kind of him!

Now I'm more confident, my aim is to win a national competition. I've got a new coach and I'm working on new tricks that really challenge me – they're often dangerous, but I love trying them. I know I have to take chances if I want to be the best. I really hope I can inspire other people to try it. It's a great sport and you'll have lots of fun, even if you don't ever do it in competitions!

- 1 Why did Maya decide to learn how to snowboard?
 - A to try something dangerous
 - B to overcome a fear
 - C to face a new challenge
 - D to please her parents
- 2 How did Maya feel when she started snowboarding?
 - A keen to learn more about it
 - B embarrassed about her lack of ability
 - C grateful for her gymnastics knowledge
 - D worried about getting injured
- 3 Maya says that a snowboarder who talked to her at her first competition
 - A gave her some good advice.
 - B made her feel better about the result.
 - C encouraged her to change her sport.
 - D showed her new moves to work on.
- 4 What is Maya doing in the final paragraph?
 - A recommending the sport to other people
 - B describing how she does her training
 - C explaining why she wants to be successful
 - D outlining ways of making the sport more popular
- 5 What might Maya say about learning to snowboard?

A I'm starting to lose that feeling of excitement when I snowboard and I worry if there are other competitors who are really good.

B I knew exactly what would happen when I took part in my first competition, and I enjoyed it.

C I'm amazed I've been chosen to take part in the National Championships, especially as I've been dreaming of it since I was young.

D I don't get as anxious before competitions as I used to and I'm hoping to perform the tricks I'm learning at an important competition soon.

Antarctica: The final frontier?

While nomads have always travelled from one place to another as a way of life, explorers have challenged themselves to reach isolated parts of the planet, and even beyond into space. But there's one place that remains largely untouched and that's Antarctica. There's one obvious explanation for this. (1) _____ That's when the sea ice melts. There aren't any towns or even small villages – just a few empty houses left over from old expeditions and some more modern buildings where scientists do research into things like climate change.

Although it's hard to find people in Antarctica, it's certainly not difficult to find other living creatures.

(2) _____ It may be difficult to see them, though, as the snowy landscape seems to go on forever.

Apart from the cold, what you'll notice first is the silence.

(3) _____ Some people find it too quiet! Travelling is pretty difficult even for those in search of adventure. There aren't any roads or marked routes. Instead, huge mountains reach high into the sky and enormous icebergs the size of skyscrapers float on the icy water.

Strangely, for such a cold place, scientists have discovered many volcanoes in Antarctica. In fact, there may be 91 of them under the ice. (4) _____

With so much to find out about the continent, it remains a fascinating place. More and more tourists are keen to see it for themselves, which could be a problem in this beautiful area of the planet.

- A So for that reason it's difficult to explain how cold it is there.
- B It's not like anything you'll hear anywhere else.
- C There's a vast range of wildlife there, including whales, penguins and birds.
- D The best way to travel there is by boat.
- E People can only get there in spring when temperatures rise a little.
- F This is why it's expensive for tourists to visit the area.
- G More research is needed to discover whether any of these are active, though.

How did you do?

- 2 Check your answers.

(1) B I was upset about this at first and thought I would have to give up my dreams. Then someone suggested becoming a stage manager. (2) D I investigated and it looked perfect for me.

So what does a stage manager do? Everything! Obviously, I'm not on the stage, though – I'm the most important person behind the scenes. I also have to do practical things in the theatre. (4) A If anything goes wrong, then it's my job to fix it. I always have to be ready for surprises!

A pilot's life

I always knew I wanted to be a pilot so as soon as I finished school I started applying to different airlines to join their training courses. I was offered an interview with two different companies.

(1) _____ Luckily, I did much better the next time and the company accepted me. There was a lot to learn on the course and it was more stressful than I expected, but I enjoyed it.

After years of training and studying, I'm now qualified as a professional pilot and the job has lots of advantages. (2) _____ I've been to hundreds of interesting places and I often stay in some of them for a couple of days between flights. In spite of that, though, there are some negatives. If I'm in an amazing place, there's no one to share it with. Also, if I go to the same place regularly, it gets boring.

My job affects my social life, too. My working days aren't fixed, which means I'm often free during the week when my friends or family are busy at college or work. (3) _____ It's not all bad, though, because it does mean that I have the opportunity to develop new interests.

Surprisingly, the lack of routine can have unexpected consequences. It means I have to make a special effort to take care of myself. (4) _____ Organising that can be difficult when I'm travelling so I always make sure any hotel I stay in has a pool or gym.

Do I regret anything? I wish I had more qualifications that are not connected with flying.

(5) _____ Because of that I'm now taking an online business course in my free time but it's hard to fit everything in. I do know I'm lucky, though, and I have a dream job!
