Discussion activities key

- 1 The Mississippi River is in the east of the United States. It goes from Minnesota in the north to New Orleans in the south. It is about 3,766 kilometers long. Children sometimes had a difficult life. They played with simple things. In the story, they play by the river and in a cave and they have adventures. There were no computers, televisions or mobile phones. Today children's lives are very different.
- 2 Suggested answers:
He is a happy, clever boy. He loves his aunt and he likes playing and having adventures. He doesn't like school. It isn't interesting because he can't play or have adventures there. The teacher gets angry with him too. Tom is a good friend. A good friend helps you and plays with you.
