

Clothing and Appearance

PREVIEW

- A APPEARANCE AND SELF-ESTEEM | Listen to an introduction to a psychologist's talk.

What is the problem the speaker describes? Possible answer:

A growing trend of having a super-thin body is harmful to most girls' and women's self-image.

- B ZOOM-IN | Read and listen to friends discuss clothing customs.

Notice the featured words and phrases.

UNDERSTAND A VARIETY OF ACCENTS

Eliani = Arabic

Harriet = American English (regional)

Eliani: Layla's been invited to a friend's wedding next month—a close friend actually. And she was asked to be a bridesmaid. I'm not sure what I should get her to wear.

Harriet: Wow! Time flies. Layla's old enough to have friends getting married?

Eliani: Hello! Layla's 20. She's in her last year at school. Hard to believe, right?

Harriet: Well, about the dress: That decision's out of your hands. The bride picks out the bridesmaids' dress and they all wear the same thing. End of story.

Eliani: Oh, that's just like at home. But what kind of dress do you suppose they'll choose for her? Do you think it'll be very revealing? I realize she's not a child, and it's probably none of my business.

Harriet: Well, by our standards, probably not very revealing, but I understand you might not feel the same way.

Eliani: You know me so well! It's been a struggle for me bringing her up here in this country. Call me old-fashioned, but I still think a young unmarried woman should dress modestly.

Harriet: How modestly do you mean?

Eliani: Well, don't get me wrong. I'm not saying she should be covered up from head to toe, but you have to draw the line somewhere, don't you?

Harriet: Yeah, you do.

Eliani: I mean, look at the way girls walk around—actually it's not just the girls. If I had a son, I'd feel the same way about inappropriate clothes. The majority of them walk around in torn pants hanging down below their . . .

Harriet: I wouldn't read too much into any of this, Eliani. It doesn't mean much. Things that seem fine in one culture can be totally inappropriate or disrespectful somewhere else. It's just fashion.

- C UNDERSTAND FROM CONTEXT | With a partner, find featured words or phrases from Zoom-In to answer the questions.

- How does Harriet indicate that she's surprised Layla is already 20?
- In what way does Eliani say that something's been difficult for her?
- What word does Eliani use to mean "not up to date"?
- How does Eliani ask Harriet not to misunderstand what she's going to say?

1. Time flies.

2. It's been a struggle.

3. old-fashioned

4. Don't get me wrong.

- D LOOK IT UP AND SHARE | Find a word or phrase in Zoom-In that was new to you. Look it up and use it in a sentence. Share your sentence with a partner.

- E THINK AND EXPLAIN | With a partner, discuss the answers to the questions, based on the conversation in Zoom-In.

- Why do you think Eliani says that decisions about Layla's clothes are "none of her business"?
- Why does Harriet say that the decision about the dress is "out of Eliani's hands"?
- What does Harriet mean by "End of story"?
- What do you think Eliani means when she describes a dress as "revealing"?
- What do you think Eliani means by "you have to draw the line somewhere"?
- What does Harriet mean when she says, "I wouldn't read too much into any of this, Eliani"?

“I think Eliani says that clothing decisions are “none of her business” because she understands that Layla is old enough to make her own decisions.”

Possible answers:

1. Because Layla is no longer a child, she can make her own decisions about what to wear.

2. Because the bride picks out the bridesmaids' dress, Eliani has no say about Layla's dress.

3. There's no more to say about this.

4. She means it shows too much skin.

5. She means one has to set a boundary somewhere.

6. She means it's not a big deal; don't worry about it.

A |||| APPEARANCE AND SELF-ESTEEM

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Have Ss read the heading of Exercise A. Ask, What is appearance? (the way you look) What is self-esteem? (the way you feel about yourself)
- Write ideal on the board. Elicit or explain that an ideal is the best that something could possibly be. Say, The talk will discuss the female ideal. What might that refer to? Invite Ss to speculate.
- Have Ss listen to the conversation. To check comprehension, ask:
What is the female ideal today? (to be very thin)
How do models in fashion magazines today compare to models in the past? (models were not as thin in the past)
What does it mean to starve oneself? (to eat so little that you are severely hungry)
- In pairs, have Ss discuss the question in the directions.
- Return to the exercise heading. Ask, According to the psychologist, what type of self-esteem do many girls and women have? (low) Why? (because they are aiming for an impossible ideal of being very thin)

B |||| ZOOM-IN

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- Bring Ss' attention to the note on accents on the right. Point out that Eliani comes from a different culture and is struggling with cultural differences in fashion in the U.S.

- Have Ss read and listen to the conversation, noticing the featured language. To check comprehension, ask:
What is Eliani worried about? (that the bridesmaid's dress may be revealing)
Does Harriet think the dress will be revealing? (not by American standards, but maybe by Eliana's standards)
What are Eliani's views about unmarried women? (that they should dress modestly)
- Point out that Eliani's sentence Hard to believe, right? has no subject, which is common in an informal conversation. Both speakers know what the implied subject is.

C UNDERSTAND FROM CONTEXT

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Have Ss work in pairs. Go over the answers with the class.

D LOOK IT UP AND SHARE

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Assist as Ss look up words or phrases.
- Have Ss share their sentence with a partner.

E THINK AND EXPLAIN

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Call on two volunteers to read the example conversation. Invite other Ss to share their opinions.
- In pairs, have Ss discuss the remaining questions. If Ss need help interpreting any of the expressions, encourage them to analyze the context to figure out meaning.

F TALKING POINTS

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Read the directions. Elicit or explain that a look means a particular style. Point to the little hangers. Tell Ss they will circle them to illustrate preference.
- Tell Ss to study the words and the styles that reflect them. Have them rate the looks.
- In pairs, have Ss compare their ratings.
- Bring the class together and ask, Who gave three hangers to classic? Loud? Funky? Subdued? Trendy? Elegant? See if there is a preferred style that the majority of Ss like.

G VOCABULARY

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Have Ss read the definitions silently.
- Then have them listen to the words and repeat.
- Finally, as a class look at the And don't forget list. (See the Teaching Tip below.)

LANGUAGE NOTES

- Wild is a slang term used to mean unusual.
- Conservative means not very modern in style or taste.
- Modest refers to clothing or behavior that avoids attracting too much attention.
- Appropriate means suitable for a particular situation.
- Inappropriate means not suitable for a particular situation.
- Casual means relaxed and not formal.
- Formal in reference to clothes can mean a tuxedo or suit for a man and a dress or gown for a woman.
- Informal in reference to clothes refers to clothes you wear at home or in regular daily situations.

OPTION (+5 minutes) In pairs or groups, have Ss think of people they know who have similar styles. Write on the board: The male model in picture 1 reminds me of my . . . and He always wears . . . Have Ss use adjectives from the Exercise G vocabulary lists.

TEACHING TIP The adjectives in the And don't forget list were previously taught in the Connectivity course. If your Ss didn't use Connectivity or don't know these words, suggest they look them up and write them in a vocabulary journal.

START TALKING | PAIR WORK

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- Read the example and ask whether Ss agree with the example statement.

- Have Ss work in pairs or groups of three to share opinions about the different outfits. Monitor and assist with any vocabulary Ss might not know, such as blazer or bow tie. Make sure they use the adjectives to describe fashion from the lists in Exercise G.
- Bring the class together and have Ss share their opinions. If Ss disagree, invite them to defend their ideas.

EXTENSION (+5 minutes) Write on the board: Do you judge people by the clothes they wear? Why? Why not? Invite Ss to share opinions in groups.

OPTION (+10–15 minutes) Write on the board:

school	work in an office
errands	dinner at a restaurant
pizza at a friend's house	hanging out at home

In pairs or groups, have Ss discuss which of the pictured outfits they think are appropriate for the specific occasions. Then ask, Do you think any of the outfits are appropriate for all occasions? Invite Ss to share situations where they or someone they knew were dressed inappropriately for an occasion. (For example: I was invited to a party at a friend's house and I came dressed in jeans. I was so embarrassed when I saw that everyone was in very formal outfits—women in dresses and men in ties! I actually went home quickly and changed!)

DISCUSSION

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- Invite Ss to skim the names under the quotations. Ask, Have you heard of any of these people? Tell Ss they will read quotes about the significance, or meaning, of clothes.
- In pairs, have Ss read and discuss the meaning of the quotes. Monitor and clarify vocabulary as needed.
- Bring the class together and call on volunteers to share how they paraphrased the sayings and which one made the most sense to them. Read the last quote. Ask, Do you agree that your style can express who you are?

LANGUAGE NOTE Stand out means to be very easy to see and notice.

EXTENSION (+5 minutes) Ask, Can you think of other quotations about fashion, either in English or in your language(s)? If not, have Ss look up some quotations online in class or for homework. Invite Ss to share.

UNIT 4 COMMUNICATION GOALS

- Lesson 1 Describe clothing details and formality
- Lesson 2 Talk about the kind of clothes you buy
- Lesson 3 Examine questionable cosmetic procedures
- Lesson 4 Discuss appearance and self-esteem

F TALKING POINTS | Complete the style survey. Rate the looks by circling 1 to 3 hangers, giving 3 hangers to the ones you like best.

G VOCABULARY | Adjectives to describe fashion | Listen and repeat.

classic	an unchangeable style that's always fashionable and stylish loud	extremely bright and very attention-getting funky	modern, "cool," and non-traditional subdued	not bright or loud; visually quiet trendy	a temporarily popular style that probably won't last elegant	beautiful and of high quality

And don't forget wild conservative modest appropriate inappropriate casual formal informal

START TALKING ...

PAIR WORK Express your opinions about the outfits in the photos, using as many adjectives as you can.

DISCUSSION Paraphrase the quotations. Which makes the most sense to you? Explain.

"Fashion is just an interpretation of the culture around us."

Nina García

(Colombian-American fashion journalist)

"In a world full of trends, I want to remain a classic."

Iman

(Somali fashion model)

"Elegance is not standing out but being remembered."

Giorgio Armani

(Italian fashion designer)

"Style is a way to say who you are without having to speak."

Rachel Zoe

(U.S. fashion designer)

"The red suit is really loud. It would be inappropriate for my office."

Describe clothing details and formality

A VOCABULARY | Describing clothes | Read the text messages. Then listen and repeat.

A

On our way to a wedding. Sophia's a bridesmaid. She's got on a floor-length evening gown in solid hot pink. It's a little low-cut, but not too revealing.

I'm in a tux.^{*} Will send pics in a bit.

^{*}tux = tuxedo

On my way to the Museum Charity Ball. Sending a pic of me in my cocktail dress. It's strapless, short, and clingy—very chic, I think.

Dad admitted it was none of his business, but he thought it was a little revealing. Mom thought the blue and green abstract print was gorgeous and said the dress was totally appropriate. Tell me honestly what you think, OK?

On our way to an "anti-fashion" parade! I'm wearing striped pajamas and a floral-print scarf, and Liam is wearing a checked tank top and plaid shorts.

We have on matching polka-dot masks. We're a masterpiece. Gonna win first prize.

And remember:

short-sleeve	loose
long-sleeve	tight
sleeveless	modest

Also:

sweater	blazer
V-neck	sweatpants
crewneck	sweatshirt
turtleneck	casual shirt
cardigan	dress shirt
polo shirt	blouse
jeans	khakis
T-shirt	shorts
slacks

B LISTEN FOR DETAILS | Listen to the conversations. Circle the letter of the illustration that answers the question.

1 Which outfit will she wear for her presentation?

2 Which outfit does the man think is attractive?

3 Which tie will the young man buy?

C PAIR WORK | Take turns describing the items in Exercise B. Your partner identifies the items you describe. Use adjectives from the Vocabulary.

PRONUNCIATION LESSON p. 134

Linking sounds

LESSON 1 Describe clothing details and formality

A VOCABULARY

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- To warm up, have Ss first look at the pictures without reading the text. Ask them to predict where the people might be going. (For example: The couple in picture A look like they're going to a very formal event. The woman in picture B might be going to a party. The couple in picture C look like they're going to a costume party.)
- Point out that each message begins with On our / my way. Elicit that this idiom means you have started going somewhere or you're about to arrive somewhere.
- Have Ss read the text messages. Then have them listen and repeat the vocabulary.
- Call on volunteers to read the items in the And remember and Also boxes.

LANGUAGE NOTES

- Picture B: Chic means very fashionable and showing good judgment of what is in style. Abstract in design refers to shapes and patterns that do not look like real people or things.
- Picture C: A floral print is fabric with pictures of flowers. A masterpiece is a work of outstanding artistry or skill.
- Also box: The word V-neck can be used as a noun that is an abbreviation of V-neck sweater, or it can be used as an adjective before dress or T-shirt.

EXTENSION (+5 minutes) Ask, Do you often send photographs of yourself when dressed up? Have Ss work in pairs to share a photo from their phone showing themselves or a friend dressed up. They should describe in detail what they are wearing. Refer Ss to the adjectives list and clothing list in Exercise A.

CHALLENGE (+5 minutes) Write on the board: Where am I going? Have Ss create scenarios such as in the first text message in Exercise A. Tell them to think up outfits and write in detail what they've got on but not say where they are going. Then bring the class together and have Ss read the clothes description for the class to guess where he or she is going. Have them refer to the vocabulary in Exercise A.

B LISTEN FOR DETAILS

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- To warm up, if time allows, Ss can use the vocabulary from Exercise A to describe the various pictures. (For example: Item 1: a) navy jacket and skirt, abstract-print blouse; b) floral-print dress and blue jacket; c) blue V-neck dress and floral-print scarf)

- Have Ss read the question for each item.
- Play the audio. Pause after each conversation to allow Ss time to choose an answer.
- Then have Ss listen again to check their work.
- To check comprehension, ask: Who are the people in each conversation? (Conversation 1: two colleagues; Conversation 2: a teenager and his parents; Conversation 3: a teenager and a salesperson)

EXTENSION (+5 minutes) Go over additional unknown vocabulary from the Exercise B conversations. Refer to the Language Notes below. Invite Ss to try using these words or phrases in sentences.

LANGUAGE AND CULTURE

- Run something by someone* means to tell them about it to see if they think it is a good idea.
- The word cute is often used to talk about clothing and outfits. It means pretty or attractive.
- A high neck refers to the neckline on a dress or other piece of clothing.
- Classy* means stylish and sophisticated.
- Smashing* means wonderful or great.
- A prom is a formal dance party in the U.S. for high school students in their third or fourth year, often held at the end of a school year.
- To say something is an epidemic means it is increasing or spreading quickly.

EXTENSION (+5 minutes) Write on the board: Prom. Start a class discussion. Ask, Is there a similar tradition in your culture of a dance at the end of high school? If yes, did you attend? Do people dress formally? What did you wear?

C PAIR WORK

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- In pairs, have Ss take turns describing the clothes and guessing.
- Assist as needed. Write on the board words such as floral-print and low-cut to help identify some of the items of clothing.

EXTENSION (+5 minutes) Divide the class into pairs. Have Ss describe clothing that a person in class is wearing, without identifying the person. The partner will guess who is being described. Encourage Ss to avoid pronouns to make it more difficult. Model an example. Say, This person is wearing a [plaid] shirt and a [solid] [black] [V-neck].

PRONUNCIATION LESSON (optional, page T134)

D ACTIVATE VOCABULARY

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- In pairs, Ss discuss their opinions of the fashions.
- Encourage Ss to say more than just I like this or I don't like this. Model an example. Say, I love the third woman's clingy evening gown. I think it's really elegant.
- Tell them to recycle the vocabulary from this unit.

Communication Activator

A CONVERSATION MODEL

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

These conversation strategies are implicit in the model

- ▶ Say I mean to elaborate on a prior statement or question
- ▶ Use Actually to assert a point of view
- ▶ Say I think that might be to gently warn that something is inappropriate
- ▶ Acknowledge someone's good advice with I'm so glad I asked, Thank goodness I asked, and It's a good thing I asked

- Have Ss look at the photo and speculate where the woman and man are and what they are doing.
- Direct Ss' attention to the Formality list. Point out that the sets of words are opposites. Ask, What is the opposite of dressy? (casual)
- Have Ss read and listen to the conversation.
- To check comprehension, ask:
What event are both these people attending?
(a reception)
Who has more information about the event: the woman or the man? (the man)
What does the woman ask the man? (how formal it will be)
What does she want to wear? (a blouse and slacks)
Does the man think this is appropriate? (No, he thinks that she will be underdressed.)
What will the woman probably wear to the reception?
(a cocktail dress)
- Call Ss' attention to the Social language box and read the heading. Model each item for Ss to listen and repeat.

B PRONUNCIATION PRACTICE

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Have Ss listen to the conversation and repeat each line. Make sure they
 - use falling intonation for What would you like to know?, How formal will it be?, and How would that be?
 - use rising intonation for Can I ask your advice about the reception this weekend?
 - use emphatic stress on I mean and Actually.
- Monitor as Ss practice the conversations in pairs. Have Ss switch roles and repeat.

C IN YOUR OWN WORDS

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- Form pairs. Instruct Ss that they will use the model in the Exercise A Conversation Model to role-play their own conversation with a partner.
- Ask a volunteer to read the words in Recycle This Language. Encourage Ss to incorporate these words into their conversation. Refer Ss back to the Vocabulary on pages 35 and 36.
- Have Ss brainstorm kinds of events to ask about, such as a dinner party, a wedding, a class picnic, or a sales meeting.
- In pairs, have Ss role-play their conversations. Monitor and assist as needed. Have Ss change roles and practice again, using new ideas, before working with a new partner.
- Go over the ideas in the Keep Talking! box and play the video  to support Ss as they extend their conversations.

LOOK FOR While Ss are doing Exercise C, monitor their conversations to determine if they are

- ✓ using vocabulary to describe clothes and fashion
- ✓ commenting on clothing details and formality

OPTION Use the Unit 4 Energizer Worksheet (see Printable Resources in the Portal).

OPTION For all Communication Activator sections in this unit, use the ORAL PROGRESS ASSESSMENT CHARTS to provide feedback to Ss on their speaking (see Teacher Resources in the Portal).

CLOSURE ACTIVITY (+5 minutes) Have Ss write their names on blank sheets of paper. Say, Pretend you are dressed to go somewhere. Write a text to a friend, like the people did on page 36, Exercise A. Describe what you look like. You can ask for feedback on your outfit and offer to send a selfie. Collect the papers and read them to identify areas for review and extra practice.

- ✶ Remind Ss of additional vocabulary, pronunciation, and speaking practice in their digital resources.

- D ACTIVATE VOCABULARY | With a partner, discuss your personal opinions about these fashions. Use the Vocabulary from Exercise A and the adjectives from Exercise G on page 35.

COMMUNICATION ACTIVATOR

Now let's describe clothing details and formality.

A ||| CONVERSATION MODEL | Read and listen.

A: Can I ask your advice about the reception this weekend?

B: Sure. What would you like to know?

A: I'm a little unsure about the dress code.

I mean, how formal will it be?

B: Actually, it's supposed to be on the formal side.

A: I've been thinking of a nice dressy blouse and a pair of solid gray dress slacks. How would that be?

B: I think that might be a little underdressed.

Most women will probably be in something a little dressier—maybe even in a cocktail dress.

A: Thanks. That's very helpful.

I'm so glad I asked.

Social language

Acknowledge someone's advice with:

I'm so glad I asked.

Thank goodness I asked.

It's a good thing I asked.

Formality

- overdressed
- on the formal side
- dressy
- underdressed
- on the informal side

B ||| PRONUNCIATION PRACTICE | Listen again

and repeat. Then practice the Conversation Model with a partner.

- C IN YOUR OWN WORDS | Create your own conversation about formality at a different kind of event. Ask about specific clothes, using clothing and adjectives from the Vocabulary. Start like this: Can I ask your advice about . . . ? Be sure to change roles and then partners. (Option: Use the Unit 4 Energizer Worksheet.)

KEEP TALKING! •••

- Ask more questions about the event.
- Provide details about the clothes.

37

- A GRAMMAR CLOSE-UP | Read the article about the history of ready-to-wear clothes. Notice the featured grammar.

Ready-to-wear or Tailor-made?

Do you know your clothing sizes? Of course you do. But would you be surprised to learn that clothing didn't always come in sizes? Here's some history:

Before the mid-19th century, most people around the world bought factory produced fabrics and made clothing for the entire family at home. By the 1850s, easy-to-use clothing patterns became commercially available, and sewing machines were standard in many homes, enabling the majority of people to make clothes quickly and efficiently for themselves. But as more and more women joined the workforce, fewer and fewer people continued to make their own clothes.

Although the vast majority of clothes purchased in the industrialized world today are ready-to-wear, tailors and dressmakers in almost every country continue to make clothes to measure for the fortunate few people who can afford a little luxury. And patterns remain popular with a great number of people—those who enjoy creating something unique, others who are thrifty, and a growing number of true artisans who make handmade clothes as a craft.

That said, there are plenty of places where tailor-made clothes are the standard rather than the exception. In the Republic of the Congo, tailor Patrick Ondze claims that most Congolese people have at least a dozen tailor-made outfits, which makes tailoring a great occupation there.

- B DRAW CONCLUSIONS | Do you think tailoring and dressmaking are a dying art? Discuss with a partner.

- C GRAMMAR | Quantifiers: review and expansion

Some quantifiers can only be used with singular count nouns.

one blouse each woman every child

Some quantifiers can only be used with plural count nouns.

a few dresses both tuxedos a pair of flats
many tailors several boys a number of styles
a couple of shirts at least four shirts a majority of designers

Some quantifiers can only be used with non-count nouns.

a little excitement much interest a great deal of trouble less music a bit of fear a great amount of elegance

Some quantifiers can be used with both count and non-count nouns.

Count nouns	Non-count nouns
no children	no education
some / any evening gowns	some / any debt
a lot of / lots of windbreakers	a lot of / lots of style
a third of the classrooms	a third of the money
plenty of young women	plenty of criticism
most problems	most sleepwear
all traditional dressmakers	all cash
more ties	more food
more and more men	more and more entertainment

Note: The quantifier a majority of can also be used with singular count nouns that include more than one person. Use a third-person singular verb.
A majority of the population buys ready-to-wear clothes.

GRAMMAR EXPANDER p. 121

- Quantifiers: a few and few; a little and little
- Quantifiers: using of for specific reference
- Subject-verb agreement of quantifiers followed by of

LESSON 2 Talk about the kind of clothes you buy

A GRAMMAR CLOSE-UP

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- Read the article title. Ask, What do you think ready-to-wear means? Encourage Ss to interpret it literally. (something you can wear right away) Then ask, What is a tailor? (a person who makes clothes that are measured to fit each customer perfectly)
- Ask Ss to look at the images. Call on volunteers to identify the items on the right. (a sewing machine, a tape measure, a model or mannequin, fabric, scissors, thread) Ask, Where would you find these items? (at a tailor's)
- Have Ss read the text. Play the audio if appropriate. To check comprehension, ask:
Where did most people get clothing before the mid-19th century? (They made it themselves.)
What allowed the majority of people to make their own clothes in the 1850s? (Most people owned a sewing machine.)
What happened as more and more women joined the workforce? (Fewer people made their own clothes.)
Is the vast majority of clothing people purchase today ready-to-wear or tailor-made? (ready-to-wear)
Why do only a few people buy tailor-made clothes? (because they are expensive)
Other than tailors, who else still uses patterns to sew clothes? (people who like to create unique clothes, people who are thrifty, and artisans who sew clothes by hand as a craft)
Where in the world are tailor-made clothes standard? (the Republic of the Congo)

LANGUAGE NOTES

- A pattern is a shape used as a guide for making clothes. It is typically a thin piece of paper used when cutting material to make clothes.
- Make something to measure means to specifically make it to fit a particular person.

B DRAW CONCLUSIONS

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Read the directions. Write dying art on the board and elicit the meaning. (a skill that is no longer practiced very widely and may soon stop existing)
- Invite Ss to discuss the question with a partner. Direct them to the second paragraph that indicates who still practices this art. Tell them to base their conclusions on the text, but encourage them to share other thoughts on the topic as well.
- Bring the class together and have pairs share the conclusions they drew.

LANGUAGE AND CULTURE Television reality shows that have contestants compete to create fashion designs could be said to be helping keep the art alive.

C GRAMMAR

Suggested time: 15 minutes | Your time:

- To present the use of quantifiers with singular count nouns, write on the board:
One manager never wears business casual.
Every company has a different dress code.
Point to the underlined noun in each sentence and ask, What do these nouns have in common? (They are singular count nouns.) Then have Ss identify the quantifier in each sentence. (One, Every) Read the first rule.
- To present the use of quantifiers with plural count nouns, write on the board:
Many office workers wear a suit and tie.
A number of people prefer business casual.
Point to office workers and people and ask, What do these nouns have in common? (They are plural count nouns.) Then have Ss identify the quantifier in each sentence. (Many, A number of) Read the second rule.
- Have Ss read the Note. Write on the board: A majority of the staff ___ casual clothes. Have Ss complete the sentence with the correct form of a verb of their choice. Go over the answer as a class. (For example: wears / prefers)
- To present the use of quantifiers with non-count nouns, write on the board:
A great deal of interest was shown by all employees.
A little productivity goes a long way.
Point to interest and productivity and ask, What do these nouns have in common? (They are non-count nouns.) Then have Ss identify the quantifier in each sentence. (A great deal of, A little) Read the third rule.
- To present the use of quantifiers that can be used with both count and non-count nouns, write on the board:
Some employees are in favor of change.
Some formality is preferred.
Point to employees and formality. Ask, What is the difference between these nouns? Elicit from the class that employees is a plural count noun, while formality is a non-count noun. Read the fourth rule.

LANGUAGE NOTE A few and a little mean some. Few means not many and little means not much. In British English, majority is a plural noun.

GRAMMAR EXPANDER (optional, pages T121–123)

D UNDERSTAND THE GRAMMAR

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Model the first item with the class. Ask, What noun is the quantifier used with? (men) Make sure that Ss understand that Most is correct because Much can't be used with count nouns. Ask a volunteer to read the example explanation.
- For each item, have Ss identify the noun and decide whether it is a singular count noun, plural count noun, or non-count noun. Then have them circle the quantifier.
- In pairs, have Ss explain their choice of quantifier by referring back to the rules in the grammar chart. Go over the answers as a class.

E GRAMMAR PRACTICE

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Model the first item with the class. Ask, What noun is the quantifier used with? (outfits) Ask, Which quantifier can't be used? Ask a volunteer to read the example explanation.
- For each item, have Ss identify the noun and decide whether it is a singular count noun, plural count noun, or non-count noun. Then have them complete the exercise.
- In pairs, have Ss explain their choice of quantifiers by referring back to the rules in the grammar chart. Go over the answers as a class.

CHALLENGE (+10 minutes) Write on the board: fast fashion. Invite Ss to deduce the meaning. (low-cost clothes mass-produced in response to the latest trends) Ask, Do you typically invest in quality clothing items that will last a long time? Or do you buy inexpensive clothing? In groups, have Ss research fast fashion and its social and environmental impacts. Instruct Ss to write up facts the group finds. For example: Researchers claim that in rich countries, the average item of clothing is worn fewer than ten times. Each year, more and more clothes are thrown away.

Communication Activator

A TALKING POINTS

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- Tell Ss to complete the questionnaire individually.
- Clarify vocabulary as needed. If necessary, explain that an article of clothing is a piece of clothing.
- For the question about whether a family member or friend has ever made an article of clothing for them, prompt Ss to think of knitting, not just sewing.

LANGUAGE NOTE Patterns in the directions means habits, not patterns used to make clothing.

B GROUP WORK

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- Read the directions. Call on volunteers to read the example answers.
- Go over the ideas in the Keep Talking! box and play the video  to support Ss as they extend their conversations.
- Form groups. Encourage Ss to ask each other questions.
- Monitor Ss' conversations, encouraging Ss to use quantifiers. Assist as needed.
- Bring groups together to share their responses.

LOOK FOR While Ss are doing Exercise B, monitor their conversations to determine if they are

- ✓ using quantifiers to talk about the types of clothes they buy
- ✓ discussing ready-to wear versus tailor-made clothes
- ✓ making generalizations and predictions about the types of clothes people buy

EXTENSION (+10 minutes) Have Ss choose one of the Keep Talking! points to discuss further as a class. Alternatively, have groups write a paragraph giving their opinion on one of the points. Then have each group present to the class.

CLOSURE ACTIVITY (+5 minutes) Have Ss write their names on blank sheets of paper and write the numbers 1 to 8 vertically. Write these quantifiers on the board: 1. each, 2. all, 3. a majority of, 4. much, 5. a bit of, 6. a great amount of, 7. lots of, 8. plenty of. Instruct Ss to write statements about clothing people make and buy using each quantifier. Collect the papers and read them to identify areas for review and extra practice.

- ✶ Remind Ss of additional grammar practice in their digital resources.

D UNDERSTAND THE GRAMMAR | Circle the correct quantifier. Explain your answer.

- 1 (Most/ Much) men today buy ready-to-wear suits.
- 2 (A number of/ A great deal of) trendy stores in the mall are just too expensive for me.
- 3 (All /Every) speaker at the meeting wore a skirt suit.
- 4 In our town there are only (a little / a few) tailors who still make suits.
- 5 A hundred years ago (less / fewer) women were in the workforce.

“ Much can't be used with count nouns. ”

E GRAMMAR PRACTICE | Circle the letters of all the quantifiers that can complete each sentence correctly. Explain your answer, based on the grammar chart.

- 1 If people buy classic outfits, they will always be well dressed and won't have to buy new clothes when fashions change.
☒ a a lot of ☒ b several ☒ c a number of ☐ d a great deal of
- 2 I was surprised to learn that clothes only come in one size.
☐ a less ☒ b some ☐ c every ☒ d a lot of
- 3 In this city, there are dressmakers who can make clothes that are much more elegant than the average ones you can buy.
☒ a a number of ☒ b a few ☒ c plenty of ☐ d a little
- 4 young people don't think much about how much clothes cost.
☒ a Most ☐ b A great deal of ☐ c Every ☒ d A majority of
- 5 Since the program for the marketing meeting didn't specify the dress code, it's clear that person must decide what to wear on his or her own.
☐ a some ☒ b each ☒ c every ☐ d most

“ A great deal of is the only choice that can't be used with count nouns. ”

COMMUNICATION ACTIVATOR

Now let's talk about the kind of clothes we buy.

A TALKING POINTS | Complete the questionnaire about your clothing purchasing patterns.

Who chooses the clothes you buy? _____	Has a family member or friend ever made an article of clothing for you? <input type="radio"/> Yes <input type="radio"/> No
Who buys them? _____	If so, what was it / and who made it? _____ / _____
What kinds of clothes do you own? <input type="radio"/> 100% ready-to-wear	Have you ever made clothes for yourself? <input type="radio"/> Yes <input type="radio"/> No
Why? _____	If so, what was it or what were they? _____
<input type="radio"/> a mixture of ready-to-wear and tailor-made	If not, would you like to learn how? Why or why not? <input type="radio"/> Yes <input type="radio"/> No _____
Why? _____
<input type="radio"/> mostly tailor-made
Why? _____

B GROUP WORK | In a group, compare your classmates' responses in Talking Points. Use quantifiers to summarize your classmates' ideas.

“ A majority of students in the class choose their own clothes. ”

“ A few students in the class make some of their clothes themselves. ”

KEEP TALKING! •••

- Say more about how you choose your own clothes.
- Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of ready-to-wear and tailor-made clothes.
- Predict whether tailor-made clothes will become more or less popular in the future.
- Say as much as you can.

39

Yes, the vampire facial is more questionable as it carries risks of infection.

A ||| READING | Read about two kinds of facials. Is one more questionable than the other?

THE QUEST FOR A YOUTHFUL APPEARANCE — FOR MEN AND WOMEN

The desire to preserve facial youth and beauty is as old as history, going all the way back to the ancient world. Cleopatra of Egypt supposedly bathed in the milk of donkeys to stay young-looking, though the historical accuracy of that story isn't confirmed, and many people doubt that it's true. Nevertheless, to this day, milk is used widely in the manufacture of creams and soaps that are popular with both men and women.

Cosmetic treatments to improve the look of the face vary from the use of natural (although sometimes questionable or even dangerous) ingredients to somewhat more physical procedures, such as "face yoga" and "vampire facials." Face yoga is based on the principle that exercise strengthens muscles. As the face ages, muscles become weak and sag, sliding downward over time and giving the face an aging look. The corners of lips of older people tend to turn downward instead of upward, creating the appearance of sadness. Some cosmeticians promote the use of exercises to improve the musculature around the mouth. It is believed that if those muscles are stronger, they can restore a happier look and reduce wrinkles and other facial lines. Do such facial gymnastics work? One academic study showed that 20 weeks of regular facial exercises did result in firmer muscle tone, and participants in the study were judged to look three years younger than their actual age.

While a little facial exercise cannot be harmful, vampire facials, which are gaining in popularity worldwide, might not be so safe. A vampire facial, also known as a "blood facial" or "micro-needling," involves taking blood from a person's arm and either applying it topically (by rubbing it on the person's face), or injecting it with a needle into many places on the face. The "micro-injuries" caused by the needle pricks cause the body to rush to heal those injuries by secreting substances such as collagen and elastin, which fill in sagging skin, erasing lines.

Unfortunately, vampire facials present substantial risks if strict medical guidelines aren't observed. These trendy facials are widely available in spas and beauty salons where operators may reuse needles from one client to another or not properly sterilize them to kill bacteria. This can lead to infections, some of which could be life-threatening, such as HIV or hepatitis. However, when administered in a medical setting, such as a doctor's office, the risk is probably minor.

The old saying "You've got to suffer for beauty" seems illustrated by the vampire facial. Though some claim the pain is justified by the results, others aren't so sure.

"Vampire facial? You've got to be kidding. The whole idea reminds me of that awful Twilight movie. Horrible idea!"

Melanie Stroock,
microbiologist

B UNDERSTAND FROM CONTEXT | Complete the statements with words from the box.

- One reason for the popularity of facials is to maintain the appearance of youth.
- Something that's widely believed though not known for sure is only supposedly true.
- A belief that's questionable is one that's not necessarily accurate.
- To hang in a downward direction is to sag.
- The lines that appear on one's face as one gets older are called wrinkles.
- Muscles that are exercised regularly become firmer over time.
- Infections are caused by bacteria.

LESSON 3 Examine questionable cosmetic procedures

A READING

Suggested time: 15 minutes | Your time:

- Read the title of the article. Write The quest for a youthful appearance on the board. Elicit or explain that a quest is a long search for something that is difficult to find. Ask, Do you think most people are on a quest for a youthful appearance?
- Read the directions and the target question. Elicit or explain that usually a facial is a beauty treatment in which your face is cleaned and creams are rubbed into it.
- Have Ss preview the images. Ask, What does the woman on the left appear to be doing? (sticking her tongue out / exercising her face) What is happening to the woman on the right? (Someone is injecting something into her face.)
- Have Ss read the article. If appropriate, play the audio for Ss to follow along.
- As Ss read, tell them to underline information in the article that will help them answer the target question in the directions.
- Ask, Why do you think there is an image of donkeys on the left? (because Cleopatra supposedly bathed in donkeys' milk)
- Direct Ss' attention to the inset quote. Ask, What is a different way to say You've got to be kidding!? (You must be joking!) Ask, Do you agree with the microbiologist? Does the vampire facial seem questionable to you?

CHALLENGE (+5 minutes) In pairs, have Ss each summarize one of the facial procedures for their partner without referring to the Student's Book. Tell them to include as many details as they can remember. Listen and assist as needed. Then let Ss refer back to the article to note details they forgot. Alternatively, ask Ss to work in pairs to write summaries.

LANGUAGE AND CULTURE Vampires are fictional beings. They are said to be dead people who come back to life and suck people's blood by biting their necks. Books and movies about vampires have always fascinated people. For example, the 2008 film Twilight is about a teenage girl who has a relationship with a vampire. Four more films followed. Although the movie series was extremely popular, many film critics gave it a low rating.

B UNDERSTAND FROM CONTEXT

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Ask a S to read the words in the box on the right. Call on volunteers to identify the parts of speech. (bacteria: noun; sag: verb; supposedly: adverb; firmer: comparative adjective; questionable: adjective; wrinkles: noun; youth: noun)
- Say, Scan the article to find the words and circle them.
- Have Ss work individually to complete the statements.
- Bring the class together and go over the answers.

C IDENTIFY SUPPORTING DETAILS

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- Have Ss read the questions and choose the answers they think are true, without looking back at the article.
- Then, in pairs, have Ss find and underline the supporting details in the article. Monitor and assist as needed.
- Review answers as a class.

Answers for Exercise C (supporting information)

1. The desire to preserve facial youth and beauty is as old as history, going all the way back to the ancient world.
2. ... the historical accuracy of that story isn't confirmed, and many people doubt that it's true.
3. Face yoga is based on the principle that exercise strengthens muscles.
4. The corners of lips of older people tend to turn downward instead of upward, creating the appearance of sadness.
5. One academic study showed that 20 weeks of regular practice did result in firmer facial muscle tone, and participants in the study were judged to look three years younger than their actual age.
6. ... either applying it topically by rubbing it on that person's face, or injecting it with a needle into many places on the face.
7. The "micro-injuries" caused by the needle pricks cause the body to rush to heal those injuries by secreting substances such as collagen and elastin ...
8. This can lead to infections, some of which could be life-threatening, such as HIV or hepatitis.
9. However, when administered in a medical setting, such as a doctor's office, the risk is probably minor.
10. The old saying "You've got to suffer for beauty" seems illustrated by the vampire facial.

D EXPRESS AND SUPPORT AN OPINION

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Ask a volunteer to read the saying in the last paragraph of the article.
- Have Ss discuss the questions with a partner.
- Bring the class together and poll Ss. Ask, Who would consider getting a vampire facial? Has anyone gotten one or a similar unusual facial?

EXTENSION (+10 minutes) Have Ss participate in a "for and against" debate about vampire facials.

Communication Activator

A TALKING POINTS

Suggested time: 15 minutes | Your time:

- Have Ss look at the headings of the ads. Ask, Do any of these seem like questionable procedures?
- Call on volunteers to read the rating system. Clarify that I'd have to know more means you would like to have more information before trying it. Give Ss a few minutes to read the ads and rate them individually.

- In pairs, have Ss compare ratings and discuss their reasons. Bring the class together and ask, Would anyone try the tooth whitening? The tapeworm express diet? The fish pedicure? Do you think any of these procedures should be illegal? Tell them that tapeworm diets are illegal in the U.S.
- Finally, direct their attention to the asterisk at the bottom of the tapeworm ad. Ask, Do you think the risk is worth it?

LANGUAGE NOTES

- Ad 1: Pearly whites is an informal term for teeth.
- Ad 2: Don't knock it means Don't criticize it.
- Ad 3: Abdominal complications are stomach problems, meningitis is an infection of the fluid around the brain, and dementia is a condition that involves memory loss.

B DISCUSSION

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

SOFT SKILLS BOOSTER (optional, pages T151A–B)

- Read the directions. Elicit or review that to draw the line at something means to put a limit on what you will do.
- Form small groups. Tell Ss they can use the three responses from Exercise A: Looks (or sounds) good to me!; I'd have to know more; I wouldn't try it even if you paid me!
- Monitor Ss' conversations.
- Bring the class together and have one representative from each group list the procedures the group spoke about. Discuss as a class and vote on which ones should be illegal.

LOOK FOR While Ss are doing Exercises A and B, monitor their conversations to determine if they are

- ✓ using vocabulary for discussing questionable procedures
- ✓ arguing effectively for their point of view

CLOSURE ACTIVITY (+5 minutes) Have Ss write their names on blank sheets of paper. Write on the board: Vampire facial, Tapeworm express diet, Fish pedicure. Assign pairs one of the three questionable procedures and have them write 3–4 sentences giving their views. Collect the papers and read them to identify areas for review and extra practice.

- ✶ Remind Ss of additional reading practice in their digital resources.

C IDENTIFY SUPPORTING DETAILS | Write T (true) or F (false) about each of the statements.

Then, with a partner, find supporting information in the article.

See page T41 for supporting information.

- F 1 The use of procedures and techniques to maintain a youthful appearance has begun only recently.
- F 2 It has been proven that Cleopatra used donkey milk baths as a skin care technique.
- T 3 Face yoga is a form of exercise to strengthen facial muscles, improving their tone.
- F 4 Sagging muscles give the corners of the mouth an upward direction, giving a person a happy appearance.
- T 5 Research has shown that facial gymnastics can result in a somewhat more youthful appearance if practiced regularly.
- T 6 There are two main ways to perform a vampire facial.
- F 7 In a vampire facial, a needle injects elastin and collagen to heal the skin.
- T 8 Using unsterile needles is one reason vampire facials can be dangerous.
- F 9 Getting a blood facial in a doctor's office is very risky.
- T 10 Vampire facials can be painful.

D EXPRESS AND SUPPORT AN OPINION | Discuss the questions with a partner. Explain your reasons.

- Do you agree with the old saying that you have to suffer for beauty?
- If you were sure it was safe and effective, would you consider getting a vampire facial?

COMMUNICATION ACTIVATOR

Now let's examine questionable cosmetic procedures.

A TALKING POINTS | Read the ads and rate them. Discuss your ratings and reasons with a partner.

- ☒ = Looks good to me!
- ☐ = Looks questionable. I'd have to know more.
- ☒ = I wouldn't try it even if you paid me!

STRAWBERRY TOOTH WHITENING

BASED ON SCIENCE

My secret to a perfect set of pearly whites? I brush with strawberries twice a day. Strawberries are a natural tooth whitener, and they taste a lot better than most toothpastes. And for an even more effective result, use the strawberry activator toothbrush, specially designed to hold an average strawberry.

My rating ☐

TAPEWORM EXPRESS DIET

"I tried this diet and reached my ideal weight fast!"

Don't knock it if you haven't tried it. Under a doctor's supervision, you simply swallow a small pill. Within days, one or more tapeworms will absorb all the food you eat, resulting in extra-fast weight loss.* Once you have reached your ideal weight, the doctor will administer an anti-parasite pill, killing the tapeworm, which will pass out of your body harmlessly.

Only for healthy individuals. The tapeworm express diet can cause abdominal complications, meningitis, and dementia.*

My rating ☐

FISH PEDICURE

For the fastest and most efficient pedicure, don't depend on human hands. Let the fish do it fast. Tiny fish in the pedicure tank eat away dead skin on your feet, leaving them soft as a baby's bottom. Certified germ-free fish make fish pedicures safe and effective.

B DISCUSSION | What specific dangerous, harmful, or questionable procedures have you seen or heard of? Where do you draw the line? (Option: Use the Unit 4 Soft SkillsBooster, p. 154.)

FOR MORE PRACTICE, GO TO YOUR DIGITAL RESOURCES

41

- A WORD STUDY | Compound words with self- | Read and listen. Then listen again and repeat. Use a dictionary to find two more nouns and two more adjectives with the prefix self-.

Nouns

self-confidence the belief that one has the ability to do things well
One can build one's self-confidence by developing skills and abilities.

self-esteem the attitude of acceptance and approval of oneself
High self-esteem can help a person succeed, and low self-esteem can hold one back.

self-image the opinion one has about one's own abilities, appearance, and character
A person's self-image is often hard to change.

self-pity a feeling of sadness about one's own troubles
Feelings of self-pity may interfere with a person's ability to succeed.

Adjectives

self-centered interested only in oneself
Babies and children start out life naturally self-centered, but as they grow up they begin to see others' needs as important too.

self-confident believing that one has the ability to do things well; not shy or nervous in social situations Self-confident people often look calm and sure of themselves.

self-conscious worried about what one looks like or what other people think of one's appearance
If you overdress for an occasion, you will probably feel self-conscious.

self-critical tending to find fault with oneself
Self-critical people often feel their failures are more important than their successes.

- B WORD STUDY PRACTICE | Complete each statement, using one of the compound words with self-.

- I don't know why my sister is so self-critical. Her boss and her colleagues always tell her how good her work is. self-esteem / self-confidence / self-image
- I've heard that our self-image is built by good parenting.
- No matter where I go or what I wear, I always feel self-conscious about how I look.
- People who are self-confident don't spend their day worrying about everything they do. They just expect things to go well.
- When everyone around us seems to treat us unfairly, it can lead to feelings of self-pity.
- Norma is very self-centered. She never stops talking about herself and seems to ignore everyone around her.
- A negative self-image can result from constantly being criticized for your clothes or your looks.

- C LISTEN FOR MAIN IDEAS | Listen to a talk about body image. Then read the statements and choose the one that expresses its main idea.

- ☐ 1 The media presents images of what the ideal male should look like.
- ☒ 2 Males are increasingly developing a negative body image and suffering its consequences.
- ☐ 3 A large number of men exercise excessively and are on diets.
- ☐ 4 A negative body image can be caused by bullying, teasing, and teenage peer pressure to look strong.
- ☐ 5 It is well known that many women and girls suffer from a negative body image.

- D LISTEN FOR DETAILS | Complete the statements, according to the information in the talk. Listen again if necessary.

- According to the research described in the talk, having a negative body image has caused many young (men / women) to avoid being seen in revealing clothes.
- According to one study, men and women are (equally susceptible to / not equally susceptible to) images of ideal body type portrayed in the media.
- The media portrays the ideal male body type as (thin / tall) and muscular.
- Excessive exercise and extreme dieting are ways people try to achieve (an ideal body shape / a healthy body).
- People are born with a (healthy / negative) body image.
- The influence of teenagers' friends is referred to as (image / peer) pressure.

LESSON 4 Discuss appearance and self-esteem

A WORD STUDY

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Have Ss listen to the words and study the definitions. Then have them listen and repeat.
- Point out that self- is a prefix that is used with many nouns and adjectives and that words with self- are always hyphenated.
- To show the change in meaning when the prefix self- is added to a word, write image on the board and define it as a class. (the way something is portrayed to the public; what you think someone or something is like or how it looks) Add the prefix self- and define it as a class. (how you see yourself) Note the change in meaning. Repeat with several other words from the list.
- Ask, Which of the adjectives has a positive connotation? (self-confident) Which have a negative connotation? (self-centered, self-conscious, self-critical)
- In pairs, have Ss use a dictionary to find two more nouns and two more adjectives with the prefix self-. Have them share the words and definitions with the class. (For example: nouns: self-interest, self-discipline; adjectives: self-taught, self-employed, self-destructing, self-satisfied)

OPTION (+10 minutes) Write these sentences on the board:

1. "I always make mistakes."
2. "I can do it!"
3. "I'm worried about how I look."
4. "Everyone should feel sorry for me."
5. "I'm as important as other people."
6. "I don't care much about what other people need."

In pairs, have Ss describe the person who made each statement using a noun or adjective from Exercise A. Go over the answers as a class (1. This person is self-critical. 2. This person is self-confident. 3. This person is self-conscious. 4. This person feels self-pity. 5. This person has high self-esteem. 6. This person is self-centered.)

B WORD STUDY PRACTICE

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Give Ss a few minutes to read the sentences. Tell them to notice which ones require adjectives and which ones nouns. (Items 1, 3, 4, and 6 require adjectives. Items 2, 5, and 7 require nouns.) Note that more than one answer is possible for item 2.
- Have Ss complete the exercise, referring to Exercise A as needed.
- Have Ss compare answers with a partner.

C LISTEN FOR MAIN IDEAS

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- Read the directions. Ask, What is body image? (how you see your body)
- Have Ss look at the picture. Ask, What do you think this man's ideal body image is? (muscular / having big muscles)
- Have Ss preview the main idea choices.
- Have Ss listen once for the main idea. Then have them listen again.
- Call on volunteers to read each statement. After each one, ask, Is this information in the talk? Is it the most important information? As a class, agree on the main idea. Encourage Ss to explain why it's the main idea.

LANGUAGE NOTES

- To be bombarded by something means to constantly have something directed towards you.
- A buffoon is someone who does silly things.
- Susceptible means easily influenced or harmed by something.
- Internalize means to accept an idea or belief so that it becomes part of your way of thinking.
- If it is incumbent upon you to do something, it is your duty to do it. This is a formal phrase.
- If one thing is offset by another, the effect of the first thing is reduced by the second.

D LISTEN FOR DETAILS

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- Read the directions. Tell Ss to preview the statements, marking in pencil answers they know already.
- Play the audio. Have Ss listen and answer the questions. If necessary, pause after each paragraph to help Ss locate the answers.
- Go over the answers with the class.

EXTENSION (+5 minutes) Write this quote from the talk on the board: One in ten young men said they were afraid of being seen wearing gym clothes. Ask, Were you surprised to hear how many men suffer from negative body image? In small groups, have Ss discuss. Then bring the class together and share.

E DISCUSSION

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- Read the directions. Review that be susceptible means to be easily influenced or harmed by something.
- Write on the board: Do we need to change the media? Or do we need to change ourselves? Or do we need to do both? In pairs or small groups, have Ss discuss the problem with the media's effect on people and their response to it. Challenge Ss to think deeply about the topic.
- Bring the class together and have Ss share insights.

Communication Activator

A SURVEY

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Call on Ss to read the statements in the survey. Then have Ss complete the survey individually.
- In pairs, have Ss explain their choices.
- To review as a class, ask, Are women more or less self-conscious about their bodies and faces than men? Are women or men more likely to want to look like people in the media? In general, who is beauty more important to: men or women? Have a few volunteers share their opinions with the class.

B TALKING POINTS

Suggested time: 5 minutes | Your time:

- Read the sample answers on the notepad.
- To model the activity, have a volunteer give an example of something that builds self-esteem. Then have another volunteer give an example of something that harms self-esteem.
- After Ss write their ideas individually, have them share their notes with the class. Write their ideas on the board. (For example: Build self-esteem: positive feedback from teachers, friends, or colleagues; positive self-image messages in the media; being confident in your abilities. Harm self-esteem: being criticized by your parents, teachers, or boss; bullying and teasing in childhood and adolescence; peer pressure to meet an ideal)

C DISCUSSION

Suggested time: 10 minutes | Your time:

- Form groups of three. Have Ss discuss the questions. Refer Ss to the information on the board to answer questions 1 and 2. Then have them discuss the remaining two questions.
- Bring the class together and have Ss share insights. Write Ss' ideas for question 4 on the board. Invite Ss to respond and agree or disagree, supporting their opinions.

LOOK FOR While Ss are doing Exercise C, monitor their discussions to determine if they are

- ✓ discussing the complexities behind positive and negative body image
- ✓ analyzing the positive and negative factors that affect self-esteem
- ✓ correctly incorporating compound nouns and adjectives with self-

WRITING HANDBOOK (optional, page T144)

CLOSURE ACTIVITY (+5 minutes) Have Ss write their names on blank sheets of paper. Write on the board: Do's and Don'ts to Boost Self-Esteem. Tell Ss to write five tips. Instruct them to try to use compound words with self-. (For example: Be positive and self-confident. Don't compare yourself to other people and get self-conscious.) Collect the papers and read them to identify areas for review and extra practice.

- ✶ Remind Ss of additional vocabulary, listening, and writing practice in their digital resources.

PROGRESS SELF-CHECK

Follow the procedure outlined in Unit 1 on page T11.

FOR MORE PRACTICE . . .

Refer to the list of review and additional practice items in Unit 1 on page T11.

- E DISCUSSION | With a partner, discuss the ways in which men and women can become less susceptible to the images in the media and reject its influence on our self-esteem.

COMMUNICATION ACTIVATOR

Now let's discuss appearance and self-esteem.

- A SURVEY | Take the survey. Then compare ratings with a partner.

Rate each statement about people in your country from 1 to 5.

Plan a MEETING VENUE

★ Work in small groups. Your international company or organization plans to hold a meeting in your country attended by your overseas colleagues. You have been assigned to plan the venue and dates. Discuss and make planning notes.

Location ideas

- A mountain resort
- A beach town
- A city hotel

PLANNING NOTES

Recommended meeting location and reasons:

Recommended meeting dates and reasons:

Company or organization's name:

Animal Rescue League

Our mission: To ensure that all animals have a safe and healthy place to live

★ Take turns presenting each group's proposal to the class. Ask and answer questions. After all groups have presented, vote for the best proposal. The winning group will play the role of meeting hosts in Activities 2 and 3. All other classmates will play the role of visitors.

We suggest scheduling the meeting in April. The average temperatures are very comfortable then.

But don't you think there might be too much rain in April?

Represent your country

★ Divide into your groups of hosts and visitors.

HOSTS: Using your first-hand knowledge and other resources, collect information about this country's traditions and culture. Discuss and write notes on the notepad.

VISITORS: Form groups and choose a "country of origin" for your group. Find information about that country. Discuss and write notes about your country of origin on the notepad.

Possible countries of origin

- Australia
- Canada
- Germany
- India
- Italy
- Malaysia
- Poland
- Sweden
- The United Kingdom
- The United States

OPTION Use the Phrase Book to ensure that Ss recycle and use known language from earlier levels and units. The Phrase Book is located under Printable Resources in the Portal.

1 PLAN A MEETING VENUE

Suggested time: 20 minutes | Your time:

Note: In Activities 1 and 2, Ss plan an international company meeting between a group of hosts and visitors from different countries. Activity 3 involves Ss role-playing hosts and visitors at a dinner party.

- Read the first part of the directions. Clarify that a venue is a place where an organized meeting takes place. Ask a S to read the list of Location ideas.
- Call on volunteers to read the headings in the planning notes chart. Elicit or explain that a company's mission is a short explanation of its purpose and reason for existing. Call on a volunteer to read the sample planning notes on the right. Elicit or give additional examples.
- In groups, have Ss decide on their company or organization and mission, as well as the best locations and dates for their meeting, and then complete the planning notes. Tell them they can look up examples of mission statements before writing their own.
- Bring the class together. Read the next part of the directions. Ask two volunteers to read the example conversation. Tell Ss to notice the construction We suggest schedule + -ing.
- Groups take turns presenting their meeting proposals to the class and answering questions. Once each group has presented, the class will vote on the best proposal. The winning group will play the meeting hosts and the other groups will play the visitors in the activities that follow. If the class is unable to choose a winning group, you can help them decide.

OPTION Ss can write the topics and notes on a flipchart or on the board.

2 REPRESENT YOUR COUNTRY

Suggested time: 30 minutes | Your time:

- Read the first sentence of the directions. Call on a volunteer to read the list of Possible countries of origin. Form groups of hosts and visitors. Make sure Ss understand that each group of visitors must come from the same country. Encourage them to choose a country from the list.
- Go over the categories on the notepad. Call on Ss to read them and elicit examples. Invite Ss to give examples from their own culture. (For example: Greeting customs: When you greet, you shake hands and make eye contact. Small talk: People usually talk about their families, work, and the weather. Dress codes: Work clothing is pretty casual. Manners: Everyone is typically polite and respectful. Customary roles of men and women: Men and women are treated pretty equally.)
- Tell each group to read the directions that apply to them. Instruct each group to choose one person to take notes. Let Ss look online if they need information about the countries.

OPTION If time is limited, have the host groups and the visitor groups finish up their research and / or notes outside of class. Ss can meet online for this.

3 ATTEND A DINNER PARTY

Suggested time: 40 minutes | Your time:

- Invite Ss to look at the images. Ask, What do you see? (a buffet, or a meal made up of various dishes where guests serve themselves)
- Ask, Have you ever hosted a dinner party?
- Read the first part of the directions. The hosts discuss typical dishes of the host country and vote on two items for each of the meal categories. This will be the food that is served at the buffet. The visitors research typical dishes of the country of origin that they chose in Activity 2 and choose two items for each category. They will talk about these dishes at the meal. Monitor and assist.

- Read the second part of the directions. If necessary, clarify that mingle means to move around a room and talk to a lot of different people. Tell Ss that hosts and visitors will role-play the dinner party. Call on volunteers to read the list of Small talk ideas. Tell hosts and visitors that they will first talk about the buffet food and how it compares to the food from the guests' country of origin. Then they can engage in other small talk.
- Monitor as Ss role-play. Make sure everyone is conversing with someone. Encourage anyone who is not talking to join a group and ask and answer questions. Take notes as Ss talk to offer feedback at the end.
- Bring the class together and comment on the role play. Give feedback on interaction styles and topics discussed, as well as on language.

BEVERAGES

* The meeting hosts and visitors have been invited to a casual "welcome" dinner buffet at a local restaurant. Prepare for a discussion about foods at the party and popular foods in your OWN countries.

HOSTS: In your group, discuss your favorite typical foods from this country. Vote on at least two for each serving plate. Write the names on the plates.

VISITORS: In your groups, find information about the foods of your group's country of origin and write the names of popular dishes on the plates.

* Role-play the dinner party. Mingle with the other attendees and make small talk. HOSTS: Tell the visitors about the foods on the buffet. VISITORS: Make comparisons with the foods of your own countries.

Small talk ideas

- Ask about each other's offices or professional activities.
- Talk about your families.
- Compare the geography, customs, traditions, and holidays of your countries.
- Suggest local activities and attractions.
- Invite your colleagues to visit your country with their family or friends.
