Reading

2 Look at 1. Read and write. You can use 1, 2, or 3 words.

Last weekend, Matt and his friends went to an adventure camp in the mountains. On the bus they talked about the things they wanted to do.

"I want to explore a cave and find a fossil," said May.

"I want to swim in the stream under a waterfall," said Lily.

"I love taking pictures," said Matt, "I want to see some wild animals."

They arrived in the mountains. The children went kayaking and rock climbing. They did archery and swam outside, but they were noisy, so there weren't any wild animals. Lily went under the waterfall – it was very cold!

On the last night, there was a noise in the trees. Then Matt saw some red fur. It was a fox! Matt took pictures. All the children were very happy because they did their favorite things.
