Learner awards

Here's what you need to submit your nomination...

We'll ask for some basic details about you and then about the learner you're nominating, including their:

- ▶ Date of birth
- ▶ Predicted grades
- ▶ Course title, start and end date.

Questions the nominator will need to answer

Tell us in no more than 100 words, why your learner is outstanding. Give us examples of their dedication and commitment to their studies.

- ▶ Give examples of your learner going above and beyond what is expected of them
- ▶ Any outcomes from your learner's commitment to their studies.

Tell us in no more than 100 words, how your learner displays independent thinking.

- ▶ Give examples of your learner's independent thinking
- ▶ The results of your learner being an independent thinker.

Tell us in no more than 100 words, what makes your learner a role model to others.

- ▶ Give examples of your learner being a role model to others
- ▶ Describe any positive impact these examples have had.

Tell us in no more than 200 words, what others (teachers, peers, assessors, etc.) say about the learner? Use this opportunity to provide us with quotes from those linked to the learner's study that demonstrates they are a well-rounded individual.

It's worth getting feedback about your learner from:

- ▶ Other teachers or tutors
- ▶ Other learners
- ▶ Senior staff such as Heads of Departments, Principals, Deputy Heads etc.

Remember, only BTEC educators can nominate so feel free to reach out to them!

Questions your learner will need to answer

Your learner needs to provide specific examples and evidence that shows why they are truly outstanding and why they should be a BTEC Award winner, focusing on:

- ▶ In no more than 100 words, tell us why you choose to study your BTEC course and what makes you passionate about the subject.
- ▶ In no more than 100 words, tell us how your BTEC course is helping you to prepare for your future.
- ▶ In no more than 100 words, tell us how are you a role model to others - within your school, college, or local community.
- ▶ In no more than 100 words, tell us about your successes and achievements (over and above your studies) inside or outside school or college.

And finally, don't forget:

- ▶ Check award eligibility
- ▶ Read the terms and conditions

Educator awards

Here's what you need to submit your nomination...

We'll ask for basic details about you and the educator you're nominating. Then there's a bit more about your nominee's BTEC teaching, including:

- ▶ Which BTEC course they teach
- ▶ When they started teaching BTEC.

Questions the nominator will need to answer

Tell us in no more than 200 words, why your nominee is an exceptional teacher/tutor. How do they enrich experiences for colleagues, learners and their centre in order to achieve positive results?

It's worth talking about:

- ▶ How your nominee has impacted learners and their colleagues at your centre
- ▶ The positive impact your nominee has provided to others.

Tell us in no more than 200 words, how your nominee brings their BTEC subject to life, both inside and outside of the classroom. Please provide examples of your nominee's enthusiasm and energetic teaching and learning style (using past experiences and resources at their disposal).

It's worth talking about:

- ▶ Why your teaching colleague is a shining example of vocational excellence
- ▶ What makes them a role model
- ▶ Examples of their commitment to, and enthusiasm for, their BTEC subject
- ▶ Why you believe they are an excellent BTEC educator.

Questions your colleague will need to answer

Here's where you submit your nominee's statement telling us why they are excellent and deserve to win a BTEC Award.

Our expert judging panel will review the statement alongside your nomination, so it's worth using this opportunity to expand on examples or provide new ones, rather than repeating the same information.

In no more than 250 words, tell us what inspiring teaching tactics you have implemented to deliver your BTEC subject and how does it engage and motivate your learners? Provide examples of learner results and their improvements.

It's worth talking about:

- ▶ Any teaching tactics that are embedded at the heart of delivery
- ▶ Teaching tactics that show exceptional, direct and tangible results for the learner and/or the centre
- ▶ The positive results these teaching tactics have had on the learners and/or the centre.

In no more than 250 words, tell us how you have supported/impacted your school/college on a wider level outside delivering your BTEC subject.

It's worth talking about:

- ▶ Examples of offering wider support beyond delivering your BTEC subject(s)
- ▶ Evidence of positive results this wider support has given the centre or learners
- ▶ How you offer continuous support beyond the teaching of the BTEC subject(s).

And finally, don't forget:

- ▶ Check award eligibility
- ▶ Read the terms and conditions

Provider awards

Here's what you need to submit your nomination

We'll ask for basic details about you, then there's a bit more about the establishment, including:

- ▶ Information about which BTECs your centre offers (type and level)
- ▶ Ofsted rating (UK only).

Questions the nominator will need to answer

Tell us in no more than 250 words, how your centre brings BTEC qualification(s) to life inside or outside of the classroom?

It's worth talking about:

- ▶ Energetic teaching techniques and tactics implemented at your centre
- ▶ The links your centre has to employers, stakeholders and/or the wider community
- ▶ How BTEC is at the heart of what you do
- ▶ Any demonstrations and examples of vocational excellence
- ▶ Provisions and support available outside the classroom.

Tell us in no more than 250 words, how your centre promotes BTECs as a pathway. How do you prepare your learners for their next step?

It's worth talking about:

- ▶ Progression pathways
- ▶ Employer links
- ▶ The importance of BTEC and vocational education.

Tell us in no more than 300 words, about the ethos and culture at your centre and how it encourages your learners to thrive.

Here's a few ideas on what to talk about:

- ▶ Support services
- ▶ Careers guidance
- ▶ Cross-divisional activities
- ▶ Induction programmes
- ▶ Resources available.

Provider awards

In no more than 500 words, tell us what a day in the life at your centre is like. Why do you regard your centre as excellent?

It's worth including:

- ▶ Statements from learners
- ▶ Statements from members of staff
- ▶ Statements from any other stakeholders associated with your school, college or provider.

And finally, don't forget:

- ▶ Check award eligibility
