How much do you know about the language and themes of the novel?

1. Here are five quotations from the story. Can you identify who is being described?
   a) a man of a rugged countenance […] lean, long, dusty, dreary and yet somehow lovable.’ (Chapter One)
   b) ‘a sort of murderous mixture of timidity and boldness, and he spoke with a husky, whispering and somewhat broken voice...’ (Chapter Two)
   c) ‘There was no man from whom he [Utterson] kept fewer secrets...’ (Chapter Five)
   d) ‘He had his death-warrant written legibly upon his face.’ (Chapter Six)
   e) ‘I was the common quarry of mankind, hunted, houseless, a known murderer, thrall to the gallows.’ (Chapter Ten)

2. Read these further quotations. What theme(s) do you think they are linked to, or explore, e.g. Science? Good and evil? Why?
   a) Describing Jekyll: ‘you could see by his looks that he cherished for Mr Utterson a sincere and warm affection.’ (Chapter Three)
   b) Description of Soho: ‘this mournful reinvasion of darkness, seemed, in the lawyer’s eyes, like a district of some city in a nightmare.’ (Chapter Four)
   c) Hyde to Lanyon: ‘you, who been so long bound to the most narrow and material views...’ (Chapter Nine)
   d) Dr Jekyll writing: ‘my evil, kept awake by ambition, was alert and swift to seize the occasion...’ (Chapter Ten)
   e) Dr Jekyll writing: ‘I have been doomed to a dreadful shipwreck: that man is not truly one, but truly two.’ (Chapter Ten)

Step 2 LANGUAGE AND THEMES

Step 3 WRITING SKILLS

A student has drafted this paragraph about the character of Mr Hyde.

Stevenson presents Hyde as ............................., as if he is more like an animal or creature than a person. When Utterson challenges him by the door, Stevenson describes how Hyde shrank back with a hissing intake of breath. It is as if he is some sort of snake-like fiend. However, what is perhaps surprising is that Hyde is not huge and powerful, but

1. Copy out the paragraph and add in the missing detail in the first sentence
2. Put quotation marks around the quotation the student uses
3. Finish the paragraph, completing the last sentence
This scene comes from Chapter Three: Dr Jekyll was Quite at Ease. Utterson is telling Dr Jekyll that he has learnt some new information about Mr Hyde.

“Well, I tell you so again,” continued the lawyer.
“I have been learning something of young Hyde.
   e large handsome face of Dr Jekyll grew pale to the very lips, and there came a blackness about his eyes. “I do not care to hear more,” said he. “is is a matter I thought we had agreed to drop.”
“What I heard was abominable,” said Utterson.
“It can make no change. You do not understand my position,” returned the doctor, with a certain incoherency of manner. “I am painfully situated, Utterson; my position is a very strange—a very strange one. It is one of those affairs that cannot be mended by talking.

“Jekyll,” said Utterson, “you know me: I am a man to be trusted. Make a clean breast of this in confidence; and I make no doubt I can get you out of it.

“My good Utterson,” said the doctor, “this is very good of you, this is downright good of you, and I cannot find words to thank you in. I believe you fully; I would trust you before any man alive, ay, before myself, if I could make the choice; but indeed it isn’t what you fancy; it is not as bad as that; and just to put your good heart at rest, I will tell you one thing: the moment I choose, I can be rid of Mr Hyde.”

Why is this episode important? Write one to two paragraphs (between 75 and 100 words) about:
- What it tells us about the characters or relationships at this point
- Any themes or ideas which are suggested
- How the extract could link with other scenes or moments in the novel
