GCSE physical education (short course) conditions and guidance

24 March 2016

Questions

Question 1: To what extent do you agree or disagree with the proposed changes to our rules and guidance for short-course GCSEs in physical education?

- Strongly agree
- Agree
- Neither agree nor disagree
- Disagree
- Strongly disagree

Pearson contributed to the full-course 'GCSE Physical Education - Consultation on conditions and guidance'. As a consequence, we are satisfied that whilst the conditions and guidance differ between short and full course (particularly in relation to non-exam assessment) these changes appropriately reflect the skills and knowledge students should be required to develop.

Question 2: Do you have any comments on our proposed revisions to our Conditions and requirements for GCSE Physical Education?

- Yes No

Question 3: Do you have any comments on our proposed revisions to our guidance for GCSE Physical Education?

- Yes No

Question 4: We have not identified any ways in which the proposals for GCSE physical education would impact (positively or negatively) on persons who share a protected characteristic.¹ Are there any potential impacts we have not identified?

- Yes No

¹ 'Protected characteristic' is defined in the Equality Act 2010. Here, it means disability, racial group, age, religion or belief, pregnancy or maternity, sex, sexual orientation and gender reassignment.
