

Reading at home

Ideas and inspiration

Take the challenge!
Read a book with chapters!

Share your favourite book
– tell someone about a book you love and see if they think the same.

Can you read whilst balancing on one leg?
See how long you can last for.

Read a book in your house that you've never read before.
Did you like it?

Make reading fun!
Can you create a den and read in it? You might even need a torch!

Can you find a book with a hero in it?
Read it and see what they get up to!

Initial inspiration!
Find a book that starts with the same letter as your name. What did you find?

Explore the world around you.
Try a non-fiction book today – what interesting facts can you learn?

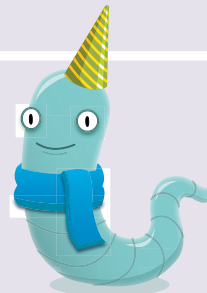

Can you find and read a book about friendship?

Dungeons or dragons? What type of stories do you prefer?

Take the challenge – read a book with more than 100 pages!

Read a book and mark it out of 10.
Why did you give it that mark?

Ask your parents or family member what their favourite book was as child?
Sound good? Maybe give it a try

Can you find a book that is set in a different country?

Don't judge a book by its cover?
Read a book that you think looks boring. You might be pleasantly surprised.

Can you find a book with a character that has the same name as you?

Read a book set in the future – do you think any of it will come true?

> Share which ones you've been doing with us on social media using the hashtag #ReadingAtHome
We can't wait to see what you've been up to!

