

The future of humanities.

Being able to think critically and analyse the world around you, unlock different languages, histories and cultures.

"76% of people think their lives are richer for having the opportunity to visit or view the historic environment"

Source: curt-rice.com

Show me the money.

- ▶ Humanities graduates are in the top 10 earners within 5 years of graduating.

Source: bbc.co.uk

- ▶ 60% of the UK's leaders have humanities, arts or social science degrees.

Source: theguardian.com

#HumanitiesMatter

Challenge yourself.

There are so many skills that are acquired whilst studying a humanities subject, without you even noticing, helping you build the foundations for your future.

- ▶ Communication
- ▶ Problem solving
- ▶ Analysing data
- ▶ Leading and working in a team.

Where can I go?

Studying a humanities subject can take you anywhere in the world, opening up a number of different careers, including; marketing, law, event planning, teaching, curating and so much more.

Join the conversation  #HumanitiesMatter