Black cowboys in the American West

What different reasons could explain why so many African Americans chose the life of a cowboy?
Imagine you are a Native American or black cowboy in the period 1860–1880. What do you think would be the most challenging part of your life?