

Level 5 Operations Manager Apprenticeship

Develop your career, connect with peers, grow as a leader

Operations Manager Apprenticeship

At Pearson TQ we provide a fully managed end-to-end apprenticeship service, covering design, delivery, and assessment solutions.

We create high quality, contextualised workplace learning programmes giving employers and individuals access to the learning they need to unlock their potential and grow with the world around them.

Operations managers undertake leadership and management duties with teams and senior managers where there is a requirement to ensure that teams carry out their role to meet organisational goals and have responsibility for planning, delivering and achieving departmental goals and objectives.

This apprenticeship delivers a professional pathway for future development with Chartered Manager or Foundation Chartered Manager status.

Why should I apply?

Personal development opportunity that is structured, bespoke and relevant for leaders and managers within the NHS, delivering a professional pathway to full Chartered Manager status.

Opportunity to build relationships and connections with peers and stakeholders across the healthcare sector and gain a broader view of the NHS.

Challenging and rewarding experience which enables you to put management theory into practice.

Increased job satisfaction - resulting in you feeling empowered to turn your success into consistent team success, and to champion compassionate care for patients and their families.

Develop coaching skills to enable you to grow as a leader and unlock your full potential to advance care for service users and carers in the local community.

Increase your confidence as a leader - shape and guide individuals to build solid lasting relationships across the Trust, creating a positive work environment, making life better together.

“ I am really enjoying my Apprenticeship, meeting other colleagues that are on the Apprenticeship in our classroom sessions and having that independent time to kind of go away, do our own coursework and then meet again.

NHS Apprentice

“ As a lab manager, the apprenticeship has definitely already given me more confidence to start managing people. I've already booked one to ones with all the staff, started to restructure the team and I have started to delegate a bit of the work too.

NHS Apprentice

“ I've definitely been using a lot more management and coaching techniques when I've been working with my trainees and thinking about how we can help them with their development.

“ A lot of the early modules that we've done around emotional intelligence and the importance of trust in leadership have helped me to gain a new appreciation of the underlying skills that are helpful to have as a manager and to think about other things that I can draw out to help myself in future management positions.

“ The apprenticeship has helped me to meet different people - even though we are from the same organisation, we are from a variety of departments that work in different ways. Getting that feel of how other departments are working and how other people are thinking is really helpful.

Quality of training delivery

Pearson TQ, your trusted delivery partner, is one of the UK's leading training providers, qualifying over 4,300 apprentices last year. They are passionate about helping to equip apprentices with the skills they need to enhance their employability prospects and to succeed in the changing world of work.

“During her progress review today, Nicola explained that her team is the highest performing team in her service and is now seen as the gold standard for all other teams! This change has occurred over the last 12 months and both Nicola and her line manager stated that they felt that the Apprenticeship programme has been instrumental over the past six months in supporting this change.”

NHS Trust

“Apprentices quickly develop the knowledge, skills and behaviours that are essential for managing their work and leading their teams effectively. Consequently, they improve their performance and make valuable contributions to their organisations ... A high number of apprentices are promoted during their apprenticeship.”

Association of Apprentices

Pearson TQ has partnered with the Association of Apprentices (AoA), a national, not-for-profit membership organisation which helps apprentices to connect, learn and fulfil their potential.

Apprentices can join the community, share experiences, communicate with people in similar situations, participate in specially curated events, and get support with everything from work skills to wellbeing.

Through our partnership, apprentices are eligible for free AoA membership with access to a bespoke social and professional networking platform that allows apprentices to unite with peers in a dedicated, inclusive virtual community and have access to thousands of resources to support apprentices work and life skills development.
