Earning & Claiming Badges

Earning a Badge

Students can earn badges in MyLab® IT by completing certain activities with a score of 90% or better. Generally, the student needs to complete an application Grader Capstone to earn a badge, but the requisite activities vary based on the course and content available.

Email Notification

After earning a badge, you will receive an email notification at the address you use for MyLab IT. (There is no in-course notification.) When you are notified of your first badge, press the Accept Your Badge button in the email to sign in or create a Credly account that will allow you to accept and share your badges.

Note: Emails at times may not be sent to your email Inbox and may appear in your Spam folder, or at times are blocked by your school's firewall settings. If you do not receive an email after several days, please contact Pearson Support and include the First and Last Name of the student, the student's email address, and the Submission ID for the assignment.
