

Spanish III

Semester A Summary:

Spanish III A is a continuation of the first two years of Spanish instruction. The student will continue to sharpen his listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills through a variety of activities. This course is organized into five topics: feelings, transportation, work, countries, and the future. The student will learn to express himself using an ever-increasing vocabulary, present-tense verbs, past-tense verbs, articles, and adjectives. Elements of the Spanish-speaking world and culture appear throughout the course, including people, geographical locations, and histories.

Content in Connections Education courses is accessible to all learners in a variety of ways. Our personalized instruction may include text readers, closed captioning, or an illustrative script. For more information or accessibility support, please call (888) 639-5960.

Semester A Outline

1. Los Sentimientos

- Describing people and things
- Talking about things that happened in the past
- Talking about things that they and others do
- Using appropriate expressions to express everyday things they would like to say
- Expressing things they do not do with the correct negative expressions
- Talking about your daily routine
- Reviewing and discussing cultural practices of the Hispanic people
- Reviewing historical details about Spain
- How to say that they do something with other people

2. La Transportacion

- Describing things and people
- Talking about things that happened in the past
- Talking about how frequently or how they do things
- Talking about where things are
- Making commands
- Talking about transportation and getting from one place to another and how
- New cultural and historical issues in the Spanish-speaking world

3. A Trabajar

- Telling others what to do and giving advice
- Making negative statements and negative advice
- Asking questions
- Talking about the past, what they used to do
- Expressing what things they may be obligated to do
- Talking about various professions that people have and their responsibilities in these professions

4. Los Países Y Las Nacionalidades

- Talking about and describing actions that happened in the past
- Talking about what they or someone are doing right now
- Talking about things, people and places they know
- New vocabulary having to do with international affairs

5. El Futuro

- Talking about things happening in the present
- Talking about things that happened in the past
- Learning to write a letter in Spanish
- Talking about things that will happen in the future
- Talking about things that might happen (if other conditions are met)
- Talking about the environment

6. Examen

Semester B Summary:

Spanish III B is a continuation of the first two and a half years of Spanish instruction. The student will continue to sharpen his listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills through a variety of activities. Throughout the five topics covered in this course, the student will learn to express himself using an ever-increasing vocabulary, present-tense verbs, past-tense verbs, future-tense verbs, conditional-tense verbs, articles, and adjectives. Grammar is introduced and practiced in innovative and interesting ways with a variety of learning styles in mind. Elements of the Spanish-speaking world and culture appear throughout the course, including people, geographical locations, and histories.

Semester B Outline

1. La Salud

- Talking about themselves, how they feel, how others feel
- Asking questions about how others feel
- Expressing things that happened in the past
- talking about the future
- Talking about health professions
- Talking about things that can be wrong or hurting
- Talking about your daily routine and things they do with or to other people

2. La Casa

- Review talking about how they do things or how frequently or how well they do them
- Review talking about things that would happen (if other things were to happen)
- Review telling people what to do
- Expressing what they would like

- Giving directions
- Additional ways to talk about their homes
- Cultural issues about Argentina

3. Las Medidas

- A review of talking about past, present, and future activities
- A review of numbers
- A review of comparing people, things, and activities
- Using a variety of expressions to express things in Spanish

4. Las Profesiones

- Talk about professions and jobs
- Talk about getting an education
- Reviewing the use of pronouns to talk about things and people
- Reviewing weather and units of time

5. Mi Historia Personal

- Vocabulary and expressions to talk about themselves
- Expressions of time and talking about the past
- More with the passive voice
- Expressing quantities
- A review of talking about the present, past, and future

6. Examen