

>> The main change in my courses are, is definitely the fact that they're all online now.

^M00:00:05

I'm not really used to doing everything online including lectures, tests, quizzes, everything. I'm more used to like face-to-face interactions with my peers and professors. That's going to be very different.

^M00:00:19

As far as the actual coursework, hopefully not too much of that will change, because I know for a fact that professors are trying their best to keep all the content the same and similar to minimize the confusion for us students.