

Pearson eText: Extend learning beyond the classroom

In a world where students are always connected....

Pearson eText gives you the power to help them learn anytime, and anywhere.

It's easy to share notes and highlights that match the way you teach.

So that students see why their reading is important and how it ties into your course.

And, a dashboard shows you exactly how students use their eTextbook. You can see how your class is engaging, and if they've spent time reading before class.

Connect. Teach. And motivate. All within your Pearson eText.
