Contents

CHAPTER 1

Introduction to Managerial Accounting 19

Why Is Managerial Accounting Important? 20

- Managers' Role in the Organization 21
- Managerial Accounting Functions 22
- Ethical Standards of Managers 23

How Are Costs Classified? 25

- Manufacturing Companies 25
- Direct and Indirect Costs 26
- Manufacturing Costs 26
- Prime and Conversion Costs 27
- Product and Period Costs 28

How Do Manufacturing Companies Prepare Financial Statements? 30

- Balance Sheet 30
- Income Statement 30
- Flow of Product Costs in a Manufacturing Company 31
- Calculating Cost of Goods Manufactured 32
- Calculating Cost of Goods Sold 34
- Flow of Product Costs Through the Inventory Accounts 35
- Using the Schedule of Cost of Goods Manufactured to Calculate Unit Product Cost 35

What Are Business Trends That Are Affecting Managerial Accounting? 37

- Shift Toward a Service Economy 37
- Global Competition 37
- Time-Based Competition 37
- Advances in Technology 37
- Total Quality Management 38
- The Triple Bottom Line 38

How Is Managerial Accounting Used in Service and Merchandising Companies? 39

- Calculating Cost per Service 39
- Calculating Cost per Item 40

■ Review 40

■ Assess Your Progress 45

■ Critical Thinking 64

CHAPTER 2

Job Order Costing 67

How Do Manufacturing Companies Use Job Order and Process Costing Systems? 68

- Job Order Costing 68
- Process Costing 68

How Do Materials and Labor Costs Flow Through the Job Order Costing System? 70

- Materials 71
- Labor 75

How Do Overhead Costs Flow Through the Job Order Costing System? 77

- Before the Period—Calculating the Predetermined Overhead Allocation Rate 79
- During the Period—Allocating Overhead 79

What Happens When Products Are Completed and Sold? 81

- Transferring Costs to Finished Goods Inventory 82
- Transferring Costs to Cost of Goods Sold 82

How Is the Manufacturing Overhead Account Adjusted? 83

- At the End of the Period—Adjusting for Overallocated and Underallocated Overhead 83

How Are Cost of Goods Manufactured and Cost of Goods Sold Calculated? 86

- Summary of Journal Entries 86
- Cost of Goods Manufactured and Cost of Goods Sold 88

How Do Service Companies Use a Job Order Costing System? 90

■ Review 92

■ Assess Your Progress 100

■ Critical Thinking 120

CHAPTER 3

Process Costing 123

How Do Costs Flow Through a Process Costing System? 124

- Job Order Costing Versus Process Costing 124
- Flow of Costs Through a Process Costing System 125

What Are Equivalent Units of Production, and How Are They Calculated? 128

How Is a Production Cost Report Prepared for the First Department? 130

- Production Cost Report—First Process—Assembly Department 131

How Is a Production Cost Report Prepared for Subsequent Departments? 137

- Production Cost Report—Second Process—Cutting Department 137

What Journal Entries Are Required in a Process Costing System? 144

- Transaction 1—Materials Purchased 144
- Transaction 2—Materials Used 145
- Transaction 3—Labor Costs Incurred 145
- Transaction 4—Actual Overhead Costs Incurred 145
- Transaction 5—Overhead Allocation 146
- Transaction 6—Transferring Costs from the Assembly Department to the Cutting Department 146
- Transaction 7—Transferring Costs from the Cutting Department to Finished Goods Inventory 146
- Transaction 8—Puzzles Sold and Transferring Costs from Finished Goods Inventory to Cost of Goods Sold 146
- Transaction 9—Adjust Manufacturing Overhead 147

How Can the Production Cost Report Be Used to Make Decisions? 148

APPENDIX 3A: Process Costing: First-In, First-Out Method 150

How Is a Production Cost Report Prepared Using the FIFO Method? 150

- Step 1: Summarize the Flow of Physical Units 150

- Step 2: Compute Output in Terms of Equivalent Units of Production 152
- Step 3: Compute the Cost per Equivalent Unit of Production 154
- Step 4: Assign Costs to Units Completed and Units in Process 155
- Comparison of Weighted-Average and FIFO Methods 158

- Review 159
- Assess Your Progress 167
- Critical Thinking 187

CHAPTER 4

Lean Management Systems: Activity-Based, Just-in-Time, and Quality Management Systems 191

- How Do Companies Assign and Allocate Costs? 192
 - Single Plantwide Rate 194
 - Multiple Department Rates 196
 - Comparing Single Plantwide Rate to Multiple Department Rates 198

- How Is an Activity-Based Costing System Developed? 199
 - Step 1: Identify Activities and Estimate Their Total Indirect Costs 200
 - Step 2: Identify the Allocation Base for Each Activity and Estimate the Total Quantity of Each Allocation Base 201
 - Step 3: Compute the Predetermined Overhead Allocation Rate for Each Activity 202
 - Step 4: Allocate Indirect Costs to the Cost Object 203
 - Traditional Costing Systems Compared with ABC Systems 204

- How Can Companies Use Activity-Based Management to Make Decisions? 205
 - Pricing and Product Mix Decisions 205
 - Cost Management Decisions 206

- How Can Activity-Based Management Be Used in Service Companies? 208

- How Do Just-in-Time Management Systems Work? 211
 - Just-in-Time Management Systems 211
 - Just-in-Time Costing 213
 - Recording Transactions in JIT 213

- How Do Companies Manage Quality Using a Quality Management System? 216
 - Quality Management Systems 217
 - The Four Types of Quality Costs 217
 - Quality Improvement Programs 218

- Review 220
- Assess Your Progress 226
- Critical Thinking 246

CHAPTER 5

Cost-Volume-Profit Analysis 251

- How Do Costs Behave When There Is a Change in Volume? 252
 - Variable Costs 252
 - Fixed Costs 253
 - Mixed Costs 255

What Is Contribution Margin, and How Is It Used to Compute Operating Income? 259

- Contribution Margin 259
- Unit Contribution Margin 259
- Contribution Margin Ratio 260
- Contribution Margin Income Statement 260

How Is Cost-Volume-Profit (CVP) Analysis Used for Profit Planning? 261

- Assumptions 261
- Breakeven Point—Three Approaches 261
- Target Profit 263
- CVP Graph—A Graphic Portrayal 265

How Is CVP Analysis Used for Sensitivity Analysis? 266

- Changes in the Sales Price 267
- Changes in Variable Costs 267
- Changes in Fixed Costs 268
- Using Sensitivity Analysis 269
- Cost Behavior Versus Management Behavior 269

What Are Some Other Ways CVP Analysis Can Be Used? 271

- Margin of Safety 271
- Operating Leverage 272
- Sales Mix 274

- Review 277
- Assess Your Progress 284
- Critical Thinking 301
- Comprehensive Problem for Chapters M:1–M:5 301

CHAPTER 6

Variable Costing 307

How Does Variable Costing Differ from Absorption Costing? 308

- Absorption Costing 308
- Variable Costing 308
- Comparison of Unit Product Costs 309

How Does Operating Income Differ Between Variable Costing and Absorption Costing? 310

- Units Produced Equal Units Sold 311
- Units Produced Are More Than Units Sold 312
- Units Produced Are Less Than Units Sold 314
- Summary 315

How Can Variable Costing Be Used for Decision Making in a Manufacturing Company? 317

- Setting Sales Prices 318
- Controlling Costs 318
- Planning Production 318
- Analyzing Profitability 318
- Analyzing Contribution Margin 321
- Summary 322

How Can Variable Costing Be Used for Decision Making in a Service Company? 323

- Operating Income 323
- Profitability Analysis 324
- Contribution Margin Analysis 325

- Review 327
- Assess Your Progress 331
- Critical Thinking 344

CHAPTER 7

Master Budgets 349

Why Do Managers Use Budgets? 350

- Budgeting Objectives 350
- Budgeting Benefits 351
- Budgeting Procedures 352
- Budgeting and Human Behavior 352

What Are the Different Types of Budgets? 353

- Strategic and Operational Budgets 353
- Static and Flexible Budgets 354
- Master Budgets 355

How Are Operating Budgets Prepared for a Manufacturing Company? 356

- Sales Budget 357
- Production Budget 358
- Direct Materials Budget 359
- Direct Labor Budget 360
- Manufacturing Overhead Budget 361
- Cost of Goods Sold Budget 362
- Selling and Administrative Expense Budget 363

How Are Financial Budgets Prepared for a Manufacturing Company? 364

- Capital Expenditures Budget 364
- Cash Budget 364
- Budgeted Income Statement 372
- Budgeted Balance Sheet 373

How Are Operating Budgets Prepared for a Merchandising Company? 375

- Sales Budget 375
- Inventory, Purchases, and Cost of Goods Sold Budget 377
- Selling and Administrative Expense Budget 377

How Are Financial Budgets Prepared for a Merchandising Company? 378

- Capital Expenditures Budget 378
- Cash Budget 379
- Budgeted Income Statement 383
- Budgeted Balance Sheet 384

How Can Information Technology Be Used in the Budgeting Process? 386

- Sensitivity Analysis 386
- Budgeting Software 386

■ Review 387

■ Assess Your Progress 394

■ Critical Thinking 427

CHAPTER 8

Flexible Budgets and Standard Cost Systems 431

How Do Managers Use Budgets to Control Business Activities? 433

- Performance Reports Using Static Budgets 433
- Performance Reports Using Flexible Budgets 434

Why Do Managers Use a Standard Cost System to Control Business Activities? 438

- Setting Standards 439

Standard Cost System Benefits 441

Variance Analysis for Product Costs 441

How Are Standard Costs Used to Determine Direct Materials and Direct Labor Variances? 443

- Direct Materials Variances 444
- Direct Labor Variances 447

How Are Standard Costs Used to Determine Manufacturing Overhead Variances? 449

- Allocating Overhead in a Standard Cost System 449
- Variable Overhead Variances 450
- Fixed Overhead Variances 451

What Is the Relationship Among the Product Cost Variances, and Who Is Responsible for Them? 454

- Variance Relationships 455
- Variance Responsibilities 456

How Do Journal Entries Differ in a Standard Cost System? 457

- Journal Entries 457
- Standard Cost Income Statement 461

■ Review 463

■ Assess Your Progress 471

■ Critical Thinking 486

CHAPTER 9

Responsibility Accounting and Performance Evaluation 491

Why Do Decentralized Companies Need Responsibility Accounting? 492

- Advantages of Decentralization 492
- Disadvantages of Decentralization 493
- Responsibility Accounting 494

What Is a Performance Evaluation System, and How Is It Used? 497

- Goals of Performance Evaluation Systems 497
- Limitations of Financial Performance Measurement 498
- The Balanced Scorecard 498

How Do Companies Use Responsibility Accounting to Evaluate Performance in Cost, Revenue, and Profit Centers? 501

- Controllable Versus Noncontrollable Costs 501
- Responsibility Reports 502

How Does Performance Evaluation in Investment Centers Differ from Other Centers? 506

- Return on Investment (ROI) 507
- Residual Income (RI) 510
- Limitations of Financial Performance Measures 511

How Do Transfer Prices Affect Decentralized Companies? 513

- Objectives in Setting Transfer Prices 513
- Setting Transfer Prices 514

■ Review 516

■ Assess Your Progress 522

■ Critical Thinking 534

■ Comprehensive Problem for Chapters M:7–M:9 534

CHAPTER 10

Short-Term Business Decisions 541

How Is Relevant Information Used to Make Short-Term Decisions? 542

- Relevant Information 542
- Relevant Nonfinancial Information 543
- Differential Analysis 544

How Does Pricing Affect Short-Term Decisions? 545

- Setting Regular Prices 545
- Special Pricing 549

How Do Managers Decide Which Products to Produce and Sell? 552

- Dropping Unprofitable Products and Segments 552
- Product Mix 556
- Sales Mix 559

How Do Managers Make Outsourcing and Processing Further Decisions? 560

- Outsourcing 560
- Sell or Process Further 564

■ Review 567

■ Assess Your Progress 574

■ Critical Thinking 590

CHAPTER 11

Capital Investment Decisions 593

What Is Capital Budgeting? 594

- The Capital Budgeting Process 594
- Focus on Cash Flows 596

How Do the Payback and Accounting Rate of Return Methods Work? 598

- Payback 598
- Accounting Rate of Return (ARR) 601

What Is the Time Value of Money? 604

- Time Value of Money Concepts 605
- Present Value of a Lump Sum 607
- Present Value of an Annuity 608
- Present Value Examples 608
- Future Value of a Lump Sum 610
- Future Value of an Annuity 610

How Do Discounted Cash Flow Methods Work? 611

- Net Present Value (NPV) 611
- Internal Rate of Return (IRR) 616
- Comparing Capital Investment Analysis Methods 619
- Sensitivity Analysis 620
- Capital Rationing 623

■ Review 624

■ Assess Your Progress 630

■ Critical Thinking 643

■ Comprehensive Problem for Chapters M:10 and M:11 643

APPENDIX A—Present Value Tables and Future Value Tables 649

APPENDIX B—The Statement of Cash Flows 653

APPENDIX C—Financial Statement Analysis 721
