Snuff - Drummer

Snuff wore a fake leopard skin suit as tight as a snake's skin. He had a brown skullcap and he wore gold socks that folded down on top of his gold boots.

On his wrist, he wore a bracelet made from small brown leaves. Around his neck hung a small drum on a silver chain and peeping from the pocket of his leopard skin suit were tiny silver drumsticks.

Cinnamon - Lead singer

Cinnamon wore a purple pantsuit with large gold buttons and zips on the arms and legs, like rows of crocodile teeth. She wore a black and gold headband and black boots with square toes. Around her neck hung a necklace of coloured marbles that glistened in the sun. She had long, gold earrings dangling with marbles, that twirled and whirled as she walked.
