Scott likes his job.
He likes his customers.
Today there is a sale on berries.
Blueberries and raspberries are today's special.

Scott's first customer comes in.
"Mr. Lin, today's special is berries!
Fresh blueberries and raspberries!
Would you like 10 baskets today?"

Mr. Lin says, "Yes, I would like
10 baskets of fresh berries.
I'll take 3 baskets of raspberries."
