

Bajinjalajila said, 'I will sneak down and get that jiman but we must be patient'. Darkness came and there was no movement from Yamani. Bajinjalajila flew down to the tree and quickly grabbed the jiman. All the birds cheered.

Yamani was woken up from all the commotion. He got wild when he saw Bajinjalajila with the jiman. Yamani flicked his tail angrily at him. He hit the back of Bajinjalajila's tail and split it. Bajinjalajila looked down at his injured feathers. But Bajinjalajila managed to keep hold of the jiman. All the birds were singing out, real happy, because they got that jiman.
