

Animal smuggling is a big problem. It is against the law, but this does not stop animal smugglers.

They smuggle:

- to sell the animals for money;
- to keep the animals for themselves;
- to use the animals for food, medicine, clothing or jewellery.

A pangolin is sold for its scales. The scales are used in medicine.

Sample pages

Some people buy bears from smugglers to make medicine.