

Properties of Different Materials

All materials have different characteristics or properties. Properties are how you describe what makes a material special. A property can be the way something feels.

Some materials are soft.

Another property is the way a material looks. Some materials are see-through. Some materials are not see-through.

Glass is see-through.

Metal is not see-through.

