

SHOSUN'S MESSAGE

Palo dropped his arm. The voice started again – inside his head. A mind message.

“I am Shosun,” said the voice. “Come. There is something you need to see.”

Palo’s head spun. Everything became a blur. When he opened his eyes, Shosun and the orb were beside him, but the land that he knew had gone.

“We have mind-travelled to Planet Gallo,” said Shosun. “Gallo is a small planet, just like Earth, but it is in a different solar system.”
