

Follow the Weather Trail

Watch the Sharing Our Stories films, and choose your favourite. Note its location.

- 1 Write the name of your chosen location and state.

- 2 Go to the Bureau of Meteorology website.
- 3 On the Australia map, click on the state you have chosen.
- 4 Find the climate averages information for your state.
- 5 Find answers to these questions about weather averages at the location you chose.

Click here to view the web link.

Question	Answer
a Which month has the highest rainfall?
b Which month has the lowest rainfall?
d Which month has the hottest maximum temperature?
c Which month has the coldest maximum temperature?
e Which month has the hottest minimum temperature?
f Which month has the coldest minimum temperature?
g Are there any months with no rain?
h What is the average annual rainfall?
i What is the average annual maximum temperature?
j What is the average annual minimum temperature?
k What is the average annual temperature at 9 a.m.?
l What is the average annual temperature at 3 p.m.?
m How many years of data have been averaged for the temperature statistics?
n How many years of data have been averaged for the rainfall statistics?

- 6 Compare your answers with those of a partner who has chosen a different location. What can you say about climate, on average, of the two locations?