

A spider has two jaws.
Inside these jaws are big fangs.
The spider uses these fangs to stab its prey.
Some spiders can swing their fangs
into their prey like an axe.
Other spiders use their fangs
to pinch their prey.

tarantula

the fangs move
up and down

huntsman spider

the fangs move
in and out