

In the kitchen, Sarah, James and Hanif are looking at the floor.

Sarah: Ned, Zed, Fred – in here, please.
It's urgent!

Ned:
Zed:
Fred: We're coming, Sarah!

Ned, Zed and Fred enter.

James: I just knocked over a carton of Zing drink. It's spreading along the floor tiles.

Hanif:

If we don't clean it up straight away, it'll run onto the electric carpet.

Fred:

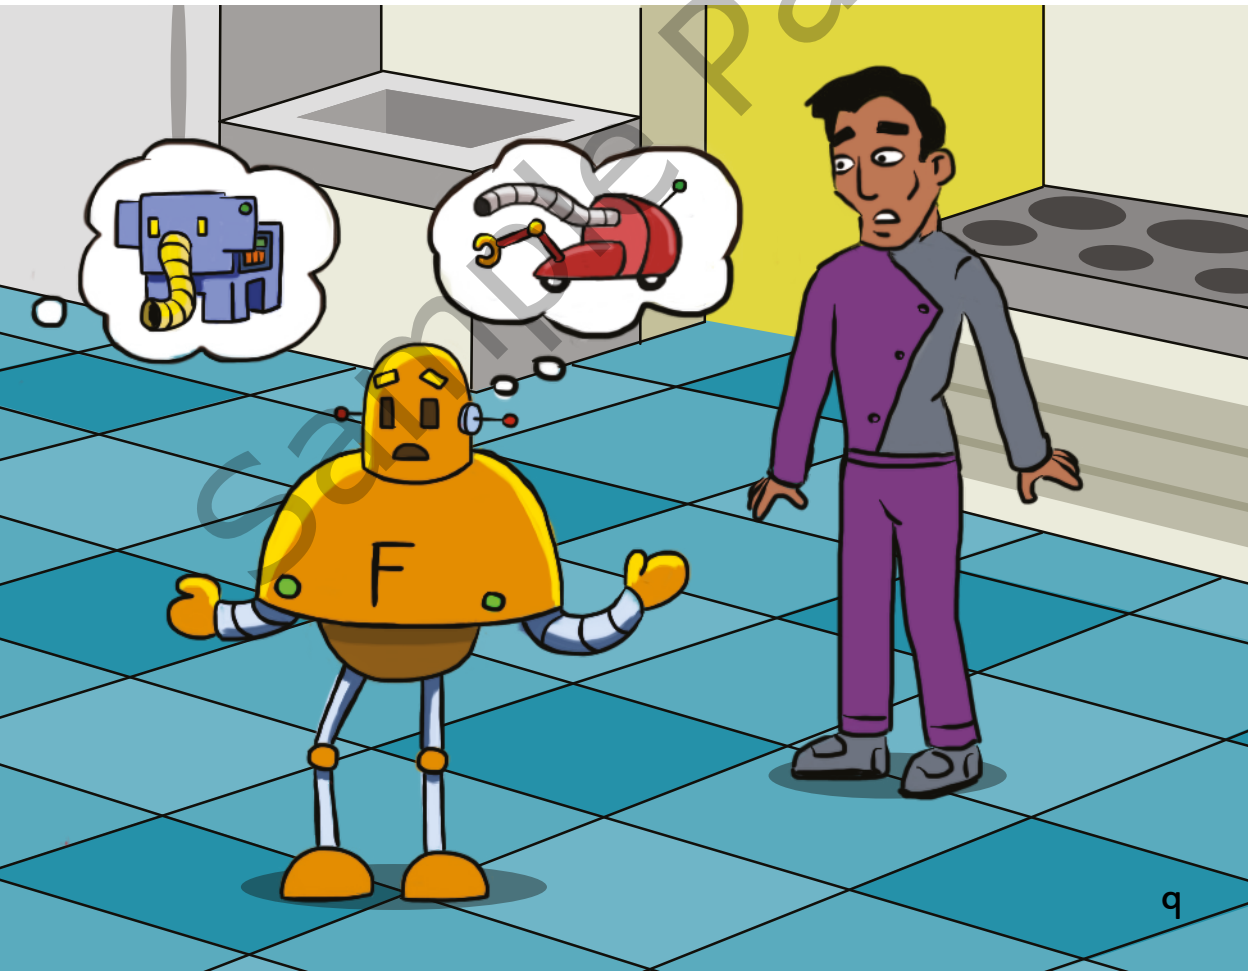

Right. I'll grab the Vapour-vac.

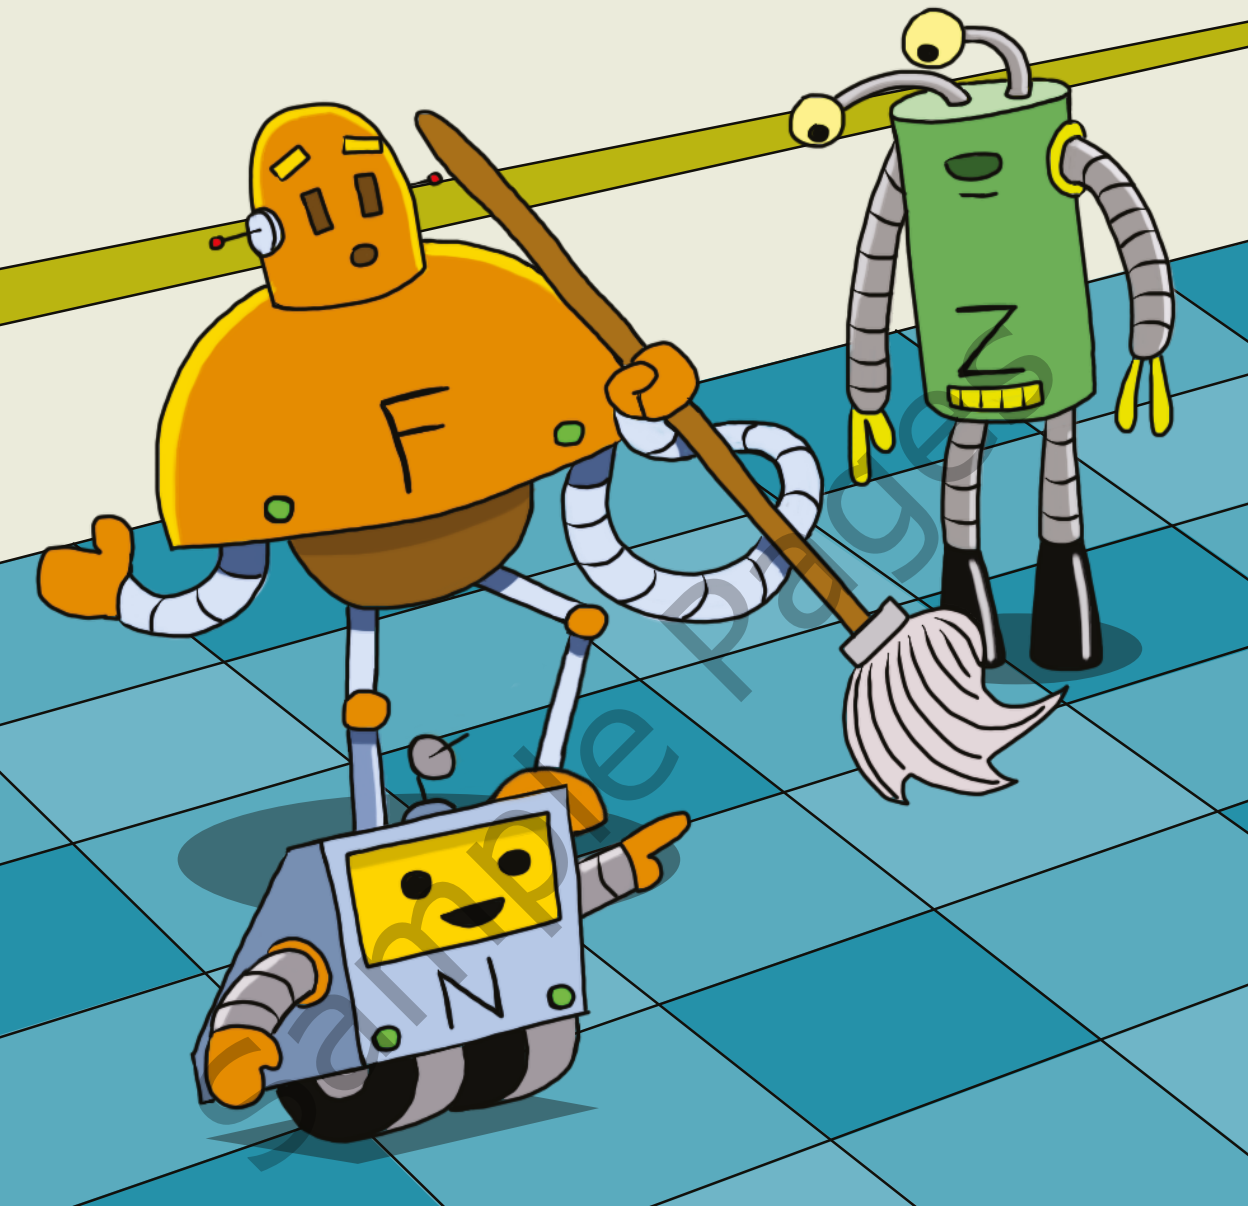

Zed:

The Vapour-vac? That won't do the job. Let's try the Supa-slurper!

Ned:

The Supa-slurper? That old thing is no good! I'll grab the Brighten-up Brush.

Zed:

You're holding it the wrong way, Fred. That fluffy bit has to be the handle!

Ned:

Yes! It looks nice and soft to hold.

Fred:

Okay, I'll hold the fluffy bit, and I'll push the Zing back with the other end!

Hanif:

You're such a clever robot, Fred!

Fred tries to push the spill back with the mop handle.

Zed:

Hmmm. It doesn't seem to be doing much, does it?
