

Read the text and complete the activities below.

When Scarlett was accused of writing on the wall in the toilet, I was shocked. I knew it wasn't true and decided that someone must have been plotting to get Scarlett into trouble. I immediately went on a mission to clear her name. First, I organised a petition to have her case heard by the School Council. They agreed that there was no evidence and her reputation was saved.

Find and write down the word that means "planning" or "scheming".

Blank space for writing the answer to the first question.

Find and write down the word that means "quest" or "undertaking".

Blank space for writing the answer to the second question.

Find and write down the word that means "a collection of signatures supporting a request".

Blank space for writing the answer to the third question.